1 Relating to: honoring the life and public service of Lieutenant Governor Margaret 2 Farrow.

3 Whereas, former Lieutenant Governor Margaret Farrow passed away on 4 March 8, 2022, at the age of 87, surrounded by her loved ones at her home in 5 Pewaukee, Wisconsin; and

6 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow dedicated her life to serving the great 7 state and people of Wisconsin and was a trailblazer for women in Wisconsin politics, 8 being the first woman to serve as lieutenant governor in Wisconsin; and

9 Whereas, Margaret Farrow was born to William and Margaret Nemitz in 10 Kenosha, Wisconsin, on November 28, 1934; and

11 Whereas, Margaret Farrow was raised in Kenosha and attended Dominican 12 Sisters of St. Catherine High School in Racine; and

13 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow attended Rosary College in Illinois and 14 earned a bachelor's degree in political science and education from Marquette 15 University; and

1 Whereas, prior to her political career, Lieutenant Governor Farrow worked as 2 a school teacher and real estate agent; and

3 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow began her career in public service in 4 municipal government, first serving on the Village of Elm Grove Board of Appeals 5 from 1972 to 1974; and

6 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow was elected as a member of the Elm
7 Grove Village Board in 1976, which she served on until 1987, and served as village 8 president from 1981 to 1987—becoming the first woman to serve as village president; 9 and

10 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow served the state in multiple capacities: 11 as a representative in the state assembly, as state senator, and eventually as 12 lieutenant governor; and

13 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow was first elected to the Wisconsin 14 Assembly in 1986, representing a district covering most of Waukesha County and

24 governor on May 9, 2001, becoming the first woman to hold that position in Wisconsin 25 history; and

1 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow continued her life of public service even 2 after her tenure as lieutenant governor had ended, serving on numerous committees 3 and boards through 2021, including the University of Wisconsin System Board of 4 Regents from 2013 to 2017; and

5 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow was a tireless leader, and one of her 6 proudest legislative achievements was to democratize access to meetings and 7 activities of the legislature through the creation of WisconsinEye, on whose Board 8 of Directors she served since its creation in 2001; and

9 Whereas, her life of service was not limited to public work, and Lieutenant 10 Governor Farrow was very active in her church and community, notably serving the 11 Archdiocese of Milwaukee for decades on numerous committees while enjoying 12 fishing and sailing with her family and quilting with her friends, and always 13 appreciated an opportunity to enjoy and share a beautiful sunset; and

14 Whereas, Margaret especially enjoyed muskie fishing with her sons, 15 daughters-in-law, and grandchildren, often participating in muskie tournaments
16 around the state. Her love of her home state of Wisconsin was evident in everything 17 she did and communicated proudly to all through her license plate, "WI A 10," which 18 she had for over 30 years; and

19 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow was a loving wife of 65 years to her 20 husband, John, and a mother to five sons: John, Bill, Peter, Paul, and Mark; and

21 Whereas, Lieutenant Governor Farrow is remembered fondly for her work 22 ethic, kindness, and service to the state and as a mentor and trailblazer; now, 23 therefore, be it
