Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill is explained in the NOTES provided by the Joint Legislative Council in the bill.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Study Committee on Occupational Licenses.

The bill requires the Department of Safety and Professional Services (DSPS) to include the following information in its biennial report to the Legislature, for the time period since the prior report:

- The number of applications for initial, renewal, and reciprocal credentials received by DSPS and any credentialing board, and the number of those credentials granted and issued. DSPS must also separately report these numbers for each profession.
- The lowest, highest, and median number of days from the day that an application for initial, renewal, or reciprocal credential is initiated to the date that a final determination is made. DSPS must also separately report these numbers for applications in the health professions, business professions, trades professions, all other professions, and each profession individually.

- The median number of contacts made to and received from an applicant for an initial, renewal, or reciprocal credential before a final determination on the applicant's credential is issued. DSPS must also separately report these numbers for each profession.

- The number of applications for initial, renewal, and reciprocal credentials for which DSPS or a credentialing board requested more information. DSPS must also separately report these numbers for each profession.

- The number of applications for initial, renewal, and reciprocal credentials that required DSPS or a credentialing board to review an arrest, conviction, or other offense record. DSPS must also separately report these numbers for each profession.

1 SECTION 1. 101.022 of the statutes is amended to read:

2 101.022 Certain laws applicable to occupational licenses. Sections
3 440.03 (1), (3m), (4), (11m), and (13) (a), (am), and (b) 75., 440.041, 440.05 (1) (a) and 4 (2) (b), 440.075, 440.09 (2), 440.11, 440.12, 440.121, 440.13, 440.14, 440.15, 440.19,
5 440.20 (1), (3), (4) (a), and (5) (a), 440.205, 440.21, and 440.22, and the requirements
6 imposed on the department under those statutes, apply to occupational licenses, as 7 defined in s. 101.02 (1) (a) 2., in the same manner as those statutes apply to 8 credentials, as defined in s. 440.01 (2) (a).

9 SECTION 2. 440.041 of the statutes is created to read:

10 440.041 Biennial report on issuance of credentials. The department
11 shall, in its report under s. 15.04 (1) (d), include all of the following covering the time
12 period since the previous report:

13 (1) The number of applications for initial credentials, the number of 14 applications for the renewal of a credential, and the number of applications for a 15 reciprocal credential that were received by the department and by any credentialing 16 board and the number of initial credentials, the number of renewed credentials, and 17 the number of reciprocal credentials granted and issued. The department shall 18 separately report for each profession the number of applications for initial 19 credentials, the number of applications for the renewal of a credential, and the

SENATE BILL 189

1 number of applications for a reciprocal credential that were received and the number 2 of initial credentials, the number of renewed credentials, and the number of 3 reciprocal credentials granted and issued.

4 (2) The lowest, highest, and median number of days from the day that an
5 application for an initial credential is initiated by an applicant to the date that a final
6 determination on the application is made; the lowest, highest, and median number
7 of days from the day that an application for the renewal of a credential is initiated
8 by an applicant to the date that a final determination on the application is made; and 9 the lowest, highest, and median number of days from the day that an application for 10 a reciprocal credential is initiated by an applicant to the date that a final
11 determination on the application is made. The department shall separately report
