Chapter Pers 24

CODE OF ETHICS

Pers 24.01 Policy statement
Pers 24.02 Departmental supplements
Pers 24.03 Force and effect

Pers 24.01 Policy statement. In order to provide a guide for employes and administrators in the formation of a responsible, loyal and efficient public service, the board may after a public hearing adopt a code of ethics applicable to all employes of the classified service.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1962, No. 75, eff. 4–1–62.

Pers 24.02 Departmental supplements. Appointing officers may adopt supplementary provisions to the code relating to their department. Such supplements and revisions shall be filed with the board before becoming effective

History: Cr. Register, March, 1962, No. 75, eff. 4–1–62.

Pers 24.03 Force and effect. The contents of the statewide code and departmental supplements shall be made known to all classified employes by their appointing officer. A disregard for the provisions of any such code may be considered as a basis for disciplinary action.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1962, No. 75, eff. 4–1–62.