2013 ~~SENATE~~ ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to: recognizing the 110th anniversary of the founding of the Harley–Davidson Motor Company.

Whereas, in 1903, boyhood friends William S. Harley and Arthur Davidson completed the first design and manufacture of a motorcycle; and

Whereas, in 1906, the Harley–Davidson Motor Company completed construction of its first building on the current site of the company's world headquarters; and

Whereas, in 1907, the Harley–Davidson Motor Company was formally incorporated with 18 employees purchasing its first shares; and

Whereas, Arthur Davidson implemented the "close to the customer" sales philosophy and established a worldwide network of motorcycle dealers; and

Whereas, during World War I, Harley–Davidson supplied 17,000 motorcycles for use by Allied Armed Forces; and

Whereas, the first Allied soldier to enter Germany following the signing of the armistice was riding a Harley–Davidson motorcycle; and

Whereas, by 1920, Harley–Davidson was the world's largest motorcycle manufacturer; and

Whereas, during World War II, Harley–Davidson built more than 90,000 motorcycles for use by United States and Allied personnel, earning four Army–Navy "E" Awards for excellence in wartime production; and

Whereas, since 1980, as a national corporate sponsor of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, Harley–Davidson has raised more than $90 million to fund research and health services; and

Whereas, the Harley Owners Group, with more than one million members and 900 chapters worldwide, is celebrating its 30th anniversary in 2013; and

Whereas, Harley–Davidson Motor Company during 2012 produced more than 247,000 motorcycles and generated $4.9 billion in revenue; and

Whereas, Harley–Davidson Motor Company has grown from a small enterprise established by boyhood friends from Wisconsin into one of the most recognizable and iconic brands in the world, with dealerships in 85 countries; and

Whereas, the Harley–Davidson Motor Company is part of the fabric of communities throughout Wisconsin, and Harley Davidson motorcycles are a source of pride and enjoyment for owners, families, and friends; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin legislature hereby honor and congratulate the Harley–Davidson Motor Company on its 110th anniversary and recognize the important contributions that its products and employees have made to the state of Wisconsin and the United States of America.
