1     Relating to: proclaiming March 31, 2023, as Wisconsin’s Transgender Day of 2            Visibility.

3            Whereas, International Transgender Day of Visibility, which occurs annually
4     on March 31, is a day set aside to acknowledge, celebrate, and elevate transgender 5     and nonbinary people across the world and here in Wisconsin; and

6            Whereas, transgender and nonbinary individuals have achieved many great 7     successes in fighting discrimination and continue in their efforts towards equality 8     and fairness by combating indignity with dignity; and

9            Whereas, the stories of our transgender and nonbinary neighbors show us that 10    perseverance can lead to systemic change and better conditions for all; and

11           Whereas, transgender and nonbinary Wisconsinites work hard to help other 12    transgender and nonbinary people acquire access to health care, to improve others’ 13    mental and physical well-being, to raise awareness of issues affecting 14    gender-nonconforming people of color, and to prevent the spread of HIV and AIDS; 15    and

1           Whereas, transgender and nonbinary Wisconsinites in the armed forces serve 2 our country with bravery and work to improve civil rights and health care for other 3 transgender and nonbinary military service members; and

4           Whereas, transgender and nonbinary elected officials and candidates for office 5 provide examples of courage and confidence in pursuing their values through 6 political engagement and encouraging others to do so as well; and

7           Whereas, transgender and nonbinary performers bring authenticity to the 8 stage and screen and demonstrate the importance of representation by sharing their 9 lived experiences; and

10           Whereas, transgender and nonbinary Wisconsinites advocate for others by 11 creating resources, trainings, and outreach materials to improve the visibility and 12 inclusion of the transgender and nonbinary community, as well as helping others 13 access and navigate gender-affirming services; and

14           Whereas, Diverse and Resilient, FORGE, SHEBA, the Wisconsin Transgender 15 Health Coalition, GSAFE, the Human Rights Campaign, Fair Wisconsin, and other 16 organizations across our state have dedicated their efforts to supporting the 17 transgender and nonbinary community, showing the strength of collective action and 18 building a more inclusive Wisconsin; and

19           Whereas, everyone has a role to play in making our communities places where 20 transgender and nonbinary people are welcomed and supported and have the 21 opportunity to thrive; and

22           Whereas, our transgender and nonbinary neighbors in Wisconsin have shown 23 great strength in the face of adversity and empower others to explore and embrace 24 their full selves by living their truth; now, therefore, be it
