2007 SENATE BILL 257

September 6, 2007 – Introduced by Senators ROESSLER, TAYLOR, KEDZIE, DARLING and LASSA, cosponsored by Representatives OWENS, FRISKE, JESKEWITZ and FIELDS. Referred to Committee on Public Health, Senior Issues, Long Term Care and Privacy.

AN ACT to amend 942.08 (2) (d) (intro.) of the statutes; relating to: invasion of privacy.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, no one may enter another person's private property without that person's consent and look into that person's dwelling unit for the purpose of sexual gratification. This bill prohibits any person from looking into another person's dwelling unit from a common area in a multidwelling building.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 942.08 (2) (d) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

942.08 (2) (d) (intro.) Enters another person's private property without that person's consent or enters an enclosed or unenclosed common area of a multiunit dwelling or condominium and looks into any individual's dwelling unit if all of the following apply:
