Gene Redhail

I am a 48 year old Native American Male. I live on the Oneida Tribe reservation for the past 7 years. I am a father of one son, 5 step children, and a grandfather of two.

My work history with Social Services started out in South Dakota from 1991-1993. I was working with adolescence at the recreation facility on the Crow Creek Reservation.

In 1999 I was hired by the Oneida Tribe, Social Services as a care worker for a long term alcohol & drug treatment facility which was called "Kana'tine" (named after an elder in our community). As it turned out I helped the clientele with Native Spiritual teachings such as performing Native American sweat-lodge ceremonies for healing and wellness.

In September of 2000, I was hired in the position of the Domestic Violence Coordinator at Oneida Social Services. This coming Sept. will be 3 years I have been working with Native Men in addressing abusive behaviors. My role also is to facilitate the Coordinated Community Response meeting we have with surrounding Counties and the Oneida Tribe.

Senator Julie Lassa
323 S. State Capitol
Madison WI 53707

re: Senate Confirmation

Dear Senator Lassa and Committee Members,

My name is Gene Red Hail and I work for the Oneida Tribe of Indians in Wisconsin, addressing domestic violence within our community. Specifically, my work focuses on men's violence in relationships and the influence that power and control has on this behavior.

The Oneida Tribe is a P.L. 280 tribe located within the boundaries of both Brown and Outagamie Counties. As domestic violence is a criminal offense, these counties take jurisdiction over these matters. The Oneida Domestic Violence Program has had great success in partnering with both counties to hold perpetrators accountable for there violent behavior.

Since my appointment to the council in 2003, we have been addressing gun surrender, anti-oppression and under served populations. I believe my reappointment to the Governor's Council on Domestic Abuse will help the State of Wisconsin, it's counties and tribes, to address the needs of victims and hold perpetrators accountable.

I would like to thank you Senator Lassa for your support on my confirmation and for allowing me the opportunity to serve thus far. I hope my name is passed along to the full Senate so I can continue the important work I am doing.

Sincerely,

Gene Red Hail
