2017 ASSEMBLY BILL 823

January 12, 2018 - Introduced by Representatives JACQUE, ALLEN, EDMING, HORLACHER, SANFELIPPO and WICHGERS, cosponsored by Senators WANGGAARD, COWLES and MARKLEIN. Referred to Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety.

AN ACT to amend 943.10 (1m) (intro.) of the statutes; relating to: entering certain places with intent to commit battery and providing a criminal penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, it is a Class F felony to enter a dwelling or certain other places with intent to steal or commit a felony therein. Under the bill, it is a Class F felony to enter one of those places with the intent to commit battery, regardless of whether the battery was a misdemeanor or felony battery.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 943.10 (1m) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

943.10 (1m) (intro.) Whoever intentionally enters any of the following places without the consent of the person in lawful possession and with intent to steal or commit a felony or a violation of s. 940.19 (1) or 940.195 (1) in such place is guilty of a Class F felony:
