

The State of Wisconsin

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER # 228

Relating to a Proclamation that the Flag of the United States and the Flag of the State of Wisconsin be Flown at Half-Staff on National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day

WHEREAS, on the morning of December 7, 1941, the United States of America suffered a vicious and unprovoked attack at Pearl Harbor, triggering our entry into World War II; and

WHEREAS, America's Pacific Fleet was nearly destroyed and more than 3,000 Americans were killed or wounded at Pearl Harbor on that infamous date; and

WHEREAS, the Congress, by Public Law 103-308, as amended, has designated December 7 of each year as "National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day"; and

WHEREAS, the President has urged all federal agencies, interested organizations, groups, and individuals to fly the flag of the United States at half-staff on December 7, 2007, in honor of those Americans who died as a result of their service at Pearl Harbor; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the people of the State of Wisconsin pay tribute to those brave individuals who died as a result of their service at Pearl Harbor;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIM DOYLE, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, by the authority vested in me by Federal and State law, do hereby order that the flag of the United States and the flag of the State of Wisconsin shall be flown at half-staff at all buildings, grounds and military installations of the State of Wisconsin equipped with such flags beginning at sunrise on December 7, 2007, and ending at sunset on that date.

By the Governor:

Douglas La Follette
