RE: 2017-18 Tuition and Fee Report

2013 Wisconsin Act 20 created the University of Wisconsin System tuition and fee report, which is codified in Wisconsin statutes [s. 36.65(4)]. The Board submits an annual report to the Joint Committee on Finance and the Joint Legislative Audit Committee that lists all fees, tuition, and segregated fees charged at each campus. It also includes five years of historical data.

- Each student is charged tuition and fees based upon his/her residency, student status, and course of study.
- Students and families interested in more information related to the cost of education may refer to resources tailored specifically to them at UW HELP (http://uwhelp.wisconsin.edu).
- The vast majority of revenue generated through fees are related to the standard costs of attending college, such as tuition and room and board. The remaining amount is comprised of smaller, targeted fees related to discrete services, such as application fees, placement test fees, distance learning fees, and special course fees.
- In accordance with state law, segregated fees are used only to fund the purposes for which they were collected.

Tuition	$1,406,175,170	71.5%
Segregated Fees	$167,321,087	8.5%
Room and Board	$182,834,874	9.3%
Other	$209,049,994	10.6%
Total	$1,965,381,125	100.0%

Reporting Context

This section provides context and background information needed to understand the tuition and fees included in this report.

According to Wis. Stats. s. 36.27(1)(a), the Board of Regents has statutory authority to establish tuition rates for the UW System. The Board establishes tuition based upon the policy principles of educational quality, access, and predictability for Wisconsin students and families.

UW System has frozen undergraduate resident tuition across its institutions since 2012. These freezes were a requirement of the legislatively passed state budget

UW institutions charge tuition to undergraduate students based on a plateau structure, with the exception of UW-Stout. With the plateau, students taking anywhere between 12 and 18 credits during the semester are only charged for 12 credits. The plateau is discussed in UW System Administrative Policy 805 available online at https://www.wisconsin.edu/uw-policies/uw-system-administrative-policies/tuition-and-fee-policies-for-credit-instruction/tuition-and-fee-policies-for-credit-instruction. For the purpose of clarity in the report, tuition rates are listed as a per-credit rate and do not include the tuition plateau. Exceptions are noted in the comments.

Segregated Fees

Segregated fees are assessed to all students for student services, activities, programs, and facilities that support the mission of UW institutions. Segregated fee policies are discussed in UW System Administrative Policy 820.

Segregated fee charges can vary based upon the student's number of credits. For this reason, segregated fees shown in this report include both the rate for a student taking one credit and the semester rate for a full-time student. Segregated fees are used only to fund the purposes for which they were collected. They are divided into two categories:

- Allocable fees: provide support for campus student activities and services, such as student organizations and concerts. Per state law, students have the responsibility to allocate these fees in consultation with the chancellor and subject to final confirmation by the Board of Regents.

- Nonallocable fees: provide support for long-term commitments for fixed financial obligations and the ongoing operating costs of university buildings, including student unions, health centers, child care centers, and recreational sports centers. In accordance with Wisconsin Statute 36.09(3), chancellors are responsible for non-allocable segregated fee budgets in consultation with students.

Other Fees

Below are examples of targeted fees.

Placement Test Fee. In higher education, placement testing is a critical component of the instructional process. Appropriate determination of students' skill levels helps to ensure that students are placed into courses in which they are likely to succeed.

Application Fees. Application fees are required by Wisconsin Statute 36.11(3), but the statute allows for a waiver based on financial need to a limited number of students. The undergraduate application fee is $50 with the exception of UW-Madison, which charges $60.

Distance Learning, Cost-Recovery, Service-Based Pricing, and Customized Instruction. In order to better serve the diverse needs of nontraditional students and Wisconsin industries, the Board of Regents has delegated tuition setting authority for innovative educational programming to the chancellors. A more detailed discussion of the policies related to these programs can be found in the UW System's Administrative policies, 100 series.

Special Course Fees. These may be used to pay for certain instructional costs that are not covered by the institution's regular instructional budget, such as field trip transportation, materials for art projects that result in tangible products retained by students, and private lessons provided to non-music majors.

Variations in the number of course fees between institutions are expected to occur as a result of institutional mission. For example, it is common for health-related fields to require a practicum at a medical facility for which the student must pay. Additionally, institutions may offer more physical education courses or art courses that use a course fee to support student experiences.

The use of special course fees to support student instruction is common across higher education. Below are examples of special course fee reports:

- University of Minnesota (http://finance.umn.edu/Budget_FY2017/FY17_OpsBudget_Approved.pdf) beginning on page 48
- The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (http://fms.registrar.illinois.edu/Report?file=CatalogInformation\Course%20Fees\Course_Fees_Fall_2017.xml)
- The University of Michigan (http://ro.umich.edu/tuition/classfees/fa17.php)

The policies governing special course fees can be found in UW System Administrative Policy 825.
