2013 Assembly Bill 373	Senate Amendment 1
Memo published: November 13, 2013	Contact: Margit Kelley, Staff Attorney (266-9280)

2013 Assembly Bill 373 relates to electronic delivery of notices and documents by insurers.

2013 Assembly Bill 373, as Amended by the Assembly

Assembly Bill 373, as amended by the Assembly, allows insurers to deliver notices and documents electronically, with the consent of the consumer, and allows standard policy forms to be posted on the insurer's Internet site when notice of the forms' availability is given in, or with, the policy's declarations page.

Senate Amendment 1

Senate Amendment 1 to the bill specifies that when a consumer requests a paper copy of a standard policy form that the insurer had posted on its Internet site, the form must be provided by mail if mail delivery was requested.

Bill History

On November 5, 2013, the Assembly adopted Assembly Substitute Amendment 1, and passed the bill, as amended, on voice votes.

On November 12, 2013, the Senate adopted Senate Amendment 1 to the bill, and concurred in the bill as amended by the Senate, on voice votes. On that date, the Assembly also concurred in the Senate amendment, on a voice vote.
