Under current law, after a criminal conviction, a court may order a presentence investigation. The district attorney and the defendant's attorney are entitled to have and keep a copy of the presentence investigation report.

Senate Bill 294 provides that an assistant attorney general is entitled to have and keep a copy of a presentence investigation report following a conviction for a felony in which the assistant attorney general has original jurisdiction.

Senate Amendment 1 clarifies that an assistant attorney general is also entitled to have and keep a copy of the presentence investigation report following a conviction for a felony in which the assistant attorney general served at the request of a district attorney or served as a special prosecutor.

BILL HISTORY

Senate Amendment 1 was offered by Senator Grothman. On October 9, 2013, the Senate Committee on Judiciary and Labor voted unanimously to adopt the amendment and to recommend passage of the bill, as amended.
