Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Licenses and social security numbers

Under current law, many state agencies and boards issue licenses, permits or other credentials for professional or occupational purposes. In addition, the department of natural resources (DNR) issues fish and game licenses for recreational purposes. This bill requires an applicant for the issuance or renewal of a professional or occupational license, if the applicant is a natural person, or an applicant for a recreational fish and game license to provide his or her social security number. The issuing agency or board must refuse to issue or renew the license if an applicant does not provide a required social security number. An agency or board that obtains an individual's social security number from a license application may release the social security number only to the department of workforce development (DWD) for purposes of DWD's administration of the child and spousal support and establishment of paternity and medical support liability program under current law.

Under current law, if an individual who has been ordered by a court to pay child or family support or spousal support (maintenance) fails to pay the amount ordered, the court may enforce the judgment or order by any appropriate remedy. Appropriate remedies include, but are not limited to, execution of the order or judgment, contempt of court, money judgment for past-due payments, satisfaction of attached property, garnishment of wages and suspension of the individual's operating privilege. Also under current law, if an individual fails to make any court-ordered payments of child or family support, maintenance or other support-related payments, DWD may certify the delinquency to the department of revenue (DOR) and DOR may withhold the delinquent amount from any income tax refund that is owed to the individual.

The bill requires DWD to establish a system under which operating privileges and occupational, professional and recreational licenses, permits or other credentials (licenses) are withheld, nonrenewed, restricted or suspended by the agency or other entity that issues the operating privilege or license for failure to pay court-ordered payments of child or family support, maintenance or other support-related payments or for failure to comply with a subpoena or warrant issued by DWD or a county child support agency and related to paternity or child support proceedings. The bill requires DWD and each issuing agency or other entity to enter into a memorandum of understanding related to the requirements for withholding, nonrenewing, restricting or suspending operating privileges or licenses, the procedures to be used and safeguards for keeping information about individuals, including social security numbers, confidential. The procedures must include adequate notice to the individual who owes the delinquent payments or who failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant, an opportunity for an individual who owes delinquent support to pay the delinquent amount or make alternative payment arrangements before any action is taken with respect to the individual's operating privilege or license, an opportunity for an individual who failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant to fulfill the requirements under the subpoena or warrant before any action is taken with respect to the individual's operating privilege or license, an opportunity for a hearing for an individual who owes delinquent support before a court or family court commissioner and reinstatement of an individual's operating privilege or license. For an individual who owes delinquent support, the operating privilege or license must be reinstated upon payment of the delinquent amount or making satisfactory alternative payment arrangements, and, for an individual who failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant, the operating privilege or license must be reinstated upon fulfillment of the requirements under the subpoena or warrant. However, in no case may an operating privilege or a license be restricted, suspended, denied or refused renewal for more than 5 years.

Under current law, a petition in an action affecting the family, such as a divorce or child support action, must include the social security numbers of the parties. This bill requires that all written judgments in actions affecting the family include the social security numbers of the parties and of any child of the parties.

Under current law, clerks of court must forward to the state registrar on a biweekly basis a report of every divorce or annulment that was granted in the clerk's court during that period. Clerks of court are also required to submit to the state registrar a report of paternity determination within 30 days after entry of a paternity judgment. The report must include the name and date and place of birth of the adjudicated father. Under the bill, the divorce and annulment report must include the social security numbers of the parties to the divorce or annulment and of any child of the parties. The paternity report must include the social security numbers of the adjudicated father, the mother and the child. The bill also requires that the social security numbers of persons signing a statement acknowledging paternity (the mother of the child and the man acknowledging paternity) be included on the statement form.

Under current law, an application for a marriage license and a marriage document (which consists of the marriage license, the marriage certificate and confidential information collected for statistical purposes) must contain any information that the department of health and family services directs. The bill requires that the social security numbers of the parties be required on the application and included on the marriage document.

Financial records matching; liens and seizures

The bill provides that, if a person fails to pay any amount of court-ordered child support, family support, maintenance or medical or birth expenses, the amount becomes a lien in favor of DWD upon all property of the person when it is included in a statewide support lien docket maintained by DWD. For each entry in the statewide support lien docket, DWD is required to include the obligor's name and social security number. For each county in the state, DWD is required to provide a copy of the statewide support lien docket to either the register of deeds or the county child support agency in that county or both. DWD must update the statewide support lien docket in response to orders issued by a court or family court commissioner. Upon payment of the delinquent amount to the county child support agency, the payer may require the county child support agency to provide a satisfaction of lien showing that the delinquent amount has been paid in full.

When a delinquent obligation is included in the statewide support lien docket, DWD is required to provide notice to the obligor that a lien on the obligor's property is in effect and that the obligor may, within a 20-day period, request a court hearing on the issue. If the obligor makes a timely request for hearing, the court or family court commissioner shall schedule a hearing within 10 business days. If it is established at the hearing that the lien is not proper because of a mistake of fact, the court or family court commissioner shall direct DWD to remove the lien from the statewide support lien docket.

DWD is granted general power to levy against property of the obligor to enforce the lien. The procedures for levying against this property vary depending upon whether the property is an account at a financial institution, other personal property or real property. The procedures are as follows:

1. Financial accounts. The bill requires financial institutions doing business in this state to participate in a financial record matching program. Under this program, a financial institution may opt to participate in either the financial institution matching option or the state matching option. Under the financial institution matching option, DWD is required to periodically provide the financial institution with information regarding delinquent obligors. The financial institution is then required to match this information against its account records to determine whether any of these obligors have an account at the institution. If the financial institution finds a match, the financial institution is required to provide information regarding the account to DWD. The financial institution is prohibited from using the information that it receives from DWD for purposes other than the matching program and is prohibited from disclosing or retaining information regarding obligors who do not maintain an account at the financial institution. Under the state matching option, the financial institution is required to provide information on all of its accounts to DWD. DWD is then required to determine whether a delinquent obligor has an account at the financial institution. DWD is prohibited from using the account information for purposes other than the matching program and is prohibited from disclosing or retaining information regarding account holders who are not delinquent obligors.

Both the financial institution matching option and the state matching option provide that the information shall be exchanged between DWD and the financial institution in the manner specified by rule or by agreement. To the extent feasible, the information is to be exchanged by an automated data exchange. The bill provides that a financial institution is not liable to any person for disclosing financial records to a child support agency attempting to establish, modify or enforce a support obligation, or for disclosures of account information, seizures of assets or other actions taken in good faith in participating in the financial record matching program.

To enforce a lien against an account at a financial institution, DWD shall send a notice of levy to the financial institution instructing the financial institution to "freeze" the obligor's accounts at the institution in an amount equal to the amount of the delinquency, plus estimated levy fees and costs and financial institution fees. No later than the next day after the notice of levy is sent to the financial institution, DWD is required to send a copy of the notice of levy to the obligor, stating the amount of owed support and that one or more of the obligor's accounts at the financial institution named in the notice have been frozen, and that the obligor may request a hearing within 20 days after the date of the notice of levy. Unless DWD or a court instructs the financial institution to release the funds within 20 days after the date of the notice of levy, the financial institution is required to pay the amount specified in the notice of levy to DWD. If a hearing is requested and the court or family court commissioner determines that the account holder does not owe the amount of support claimed by DWD, DWD is required to return the funds to the account holder.

2. Other personal property. DWD may levy against other personal property by seizing personal property. DWD must immediately notify the obligor, and any person known to have a lien on the property, that the property has been seized. If the property is titled, the notice must also be provided to the state agency that titles the property together with instructions not to transfer title to the property without instructions from DWD or a court. The notice must inform the obligor that he or she may, within 20 days, request a hearing on whether the support was owed and whether the property was wrongfully seized. The hearing is with the court or family court commissioner issuing the order to pay the support. If a hearing is not requested or is not decided in favor of the person whose property was seized, DWD must send a notice to the obligor of the time and place where the property will be sold. The property may be redeemed prior to the sale by paying the amount owed. DWD shall give the purchaser of the property a certificate of sale and, if the property is titled, instruct the state agency to transfer title to the purchaser of the property.

3. Real property. To levy against real property, DWD must provide the obligor, and any persons known to have liens on the property, with a notice of intent to levy. The notice must include information on requesting a hearing on whether the support is owed. The hearing is with the court or family court commissioner issuing the order to pay support. Unless the support is paid or unless the hearing determines that the support is not owed, DWD may send a final notice of seizure, stating the date by which the obligor must vacate the premises and stating the date of sale. DWD must allow at least 60 days for the obligor to vacate the property and 90 days before the sale. The register of deeds is sent a copy of the final notice and is instructed not to record a deed for the property, except on the instructions of a court or DWD. Notice of the sale must be publicly advertised and the obligor is entitled to redeem the property prior to the date of sale by paying the full amount owed, together with any levy fees and costs.

The bill also contains provisions requiring 3rd parties possessing property or rights to property that is subject to a levy to surrender them to DWD. A 3rd party is entitled to a levy fee of $5 for each levy in any case where property is secured through the levy and DWD is authorized to recover its costs of levy. These costs can be deducted from the proceeds of the levy after first paying any liens on the property prior to the delinquent support lien and then paying the amount of the delinquent support. The bill contains provisions for bringing actions against the state in cases of wrongful levy. DWD may delegate its powers and responsibilities with respect to support liens and levies to county child support agencies, but DWD is required to approve the initiation of levies against real property. DWD may contract with a county sheriff to perform the sale of real or personal property.

Confidential records

DWD administers a child and spousal support and establishment of paternity and medical liability support program. The main purposes of the program are to establish, modify and enforce support obligations and to establish paternity for the purpose of establishing a support obligation. County child support agencies administer the program at the local level. Current law provides that DWD may request from any person any information that it determines is appropriate and necessary for the administration of the program. A person who is the subject of a request for information must provide the information within 7 days after receiving a request. DWD and county child support agencies may disclose the information only in the administration of the program. This bill provides that DWD and county child support agencies may issue subpoenas to compel the production of financial information and other documentary evidence in the administration of the program. The bill also requires that a person in this state must comply with an administrative subpoena issued from another state to compel production of the same types of evidence for comparable purposes. A person who provides access to records or who discloses information as requested is not liable to any person for providing the access or for disclosing the information. A person who does not comply with a request for information or access to records, however, may be required to pay a forfeiture to be determined by DWD by rule.

Under current law, all persons (including state agencies) are required to provide to DWD all information requested by DWD if DWD determines that the information is appropriate and necessary for the administration of the child and spousal support and establishment of paternity and medical liability program and certain other state and federal public assistance and medical programs. This law conflicts with certain other laws that authorize or require state agencies to maintain the confidentiality of certain information contained in records of the agencies.

This bill reconciles those conflicts by giving precedence to DWD's right of access to certain records and information notwithstanding existing confidentiality provisions. Among the records and information affected by the bill are certain driving records and accident reports kept by the department of transportation (DOT), information from income tax and sales tax returns, certain records under the unemployment compensation and worker's compensation programs, certain records of applicants for public positions, certain information collected by the department of public instruction for issuing, renewing or revoking certain licenses, records of background checks of prospective handgun purchasers, financial statements filed with the department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection by dairy plant applicants, records received by DNR from the owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility and information provided by persons to the state public defender that is used to determine whether the person qualifies for representation due to indigency.

Voluntary acknowledgment of paternity

Under current law, a judge or family court commissioner may order the parties to a paternity action to undergo genetic tests for the purpose of determining paternity. If a party in a paternity action requests genetic tests, the judge or family court commissioner must order them. The bill authorizes a county child support agency to administratively require a child, the child's mother and a male who is alleged, or who alleges himself, to be the father of the child to submit to genetic tests if there is probable cause to believe that the child's mother and the male had sexual intercourse during a possible time of the child's conception. A sufficient affidavit from either the mother or the alleged father may establish the necessary probable cause. Genetic tests ordered by the county child support agency will be paid for by the county. If a party requests subsequent tests, however, the requesting party must pay for the tests in advance unless he or she is indigent, in which case the county will pay for the tests but may seek reimbursement. The results of genetic test ordered by a county child support agency may be used in a paternity action.

Under current law, generally only after a man has been adjudicated to be the father of a nonmarital child in a paternity action may any orders related to the child, such as orders for the payment of child support or for custody or physical placement rights, be made with respect to the man. An exception is if the man has signed and filed with the state registrar a statement acknowledging paternity. In that case, a judge or family court commissioner may order the man to pay child support in any action affecting the family, such as an action for support. The action need not be a paternity action. Within one year after signing a statement acknowledging paternity or one year after attaining age 18, whichever is later, a person who signed the statement, which may be either the man or the mother of the child, may request that the judge or family court commissioner order genetic tests. If the results of the genetic tests exclude the man as the father of the child, the court must dismiss any action for support, or vacate any order for support, with respect to the man.

This bill changes the provisions related to statements acknowledging paternity and applies only to those statements that are signed and filed with the state registrar on or after the day after publication. Those statements must contain notice of the provisions of the statute, and the parties signing the statements must be given written and oral notice of the legal consequences of, the rights and responsibilities arising from and the alternatives to, signing the statement.

Under the bill, a statement acknowledging paternity may be rescinded by either party who signed the statement by filing a document prescribed by the state registrar for that purpose before the earlier of the day on which a court makes an order in an action affecting the family with respect to the man and child or 60 days after the statement was filed. If a party who signed the statement was a minor when the statement was filed, that party may rescind the statement before the earlier of the day on which a court makes an order in an action affecting the family with respect to the man and child or 60 days after the party attains age 18. If the statement is not timely rescinded, the filed statement becomes a conclusive determination of paternity with the same effect as a judgment of paternity. A determination of paternity on the basis of a filed statement may be voided by a court only upon a showing of fraud, duress or mistake of fact.

The bill provides that an action affecting the family that seeks to establish a support obligation for, or custody, physical placement or visitation rights to, a child may be brought with respect to parties who signed and filed a statement acknowledging paternity with regard to the child. If the statement has not been rescinded and the parties had notice of the hearing in the matter, the court or family court commissioner may make the same orders that may be made in paternity actions, which include orders concerning child support, legal custody, physical placement, pregnancy expenses and the child's health care expenses. Current law provides that in a paternity action, the mother of the child is to have sole legal custody unless the court orders otherwise. The bill provides that in both paternity actions and actions based on a statement acknowledging paternity, the mother of the child is to have sole legal custody if the father does not request legal custody. If the father does request legal custody, however, the court or family court commissioner must use the same factors in determining legal custody that are used in divorce actions.

Although the new provisions apply only to statements acknowledging paternity that are signed and filed on or after the day after publication, a party that signed and filed a statement before that date may sign and file a new one on or after that date. In that case, the previous statement is superseded, and the new statement becomes a conclusive determination of paternity upon the expiration of the time during which the new statement may be rescinded.

The bill also makes applicable to a paternity determination that arises by acknowledgment a number of statutory provisions that apply to a paternity determination that arises by adjudication. Some examples are: the definition of "parent" in a number of situations, whether the paternity of a child to be adopted has been established, when the attorney responsible for support enforcement does not commence a paternity action if no father is named on a child's birth certificate and when a father may inherit from a nonmarital child.

Levying against pension plans and judgments

Under current law, all pension plan benefits provided by the department of employe trust funds (DETF), any retirement system of any 1st class city (currently, only the city of Milwaukee) and any retirement system established by a county government (currently, only Milwaukee County) are generally not assignable or subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment or other legal process. This bill makes any monthly annuity payment by DETF, any retirement system of a 1st class city or any retirement system established by a county government assignable and subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment and other legal processes that relate to child support and family or other maintenance support. In addition, the bill authorizes DWD to direct DETF, any retirement system of a 1st class city, any retirement system established by a county government or any private pension plan to withhold from any lump sum payment that may be paid a person an amount owed by the person for delinquent support.

Under this bill, DWD may place a lien on any judgment in favor of a person who is delinquent in, or has a balance outstanding related to, the payment of support, maintenance or other expenses for the support of a child or spouse. Under the bill, DWD or the county child support agency notifies the person who owes the money or who holds the money in trust under the judgment or settlement of the delinquency or balance outstanding and that the person must pay to DWD or the county child support agency that amount before paying any money to the person who has the judgment (up to the amount of the judgment). Under the bill, the person who is owed the money under the judgment is notified of the lien and is given an opportunity to contest the withholding of the amount of the delinquency or outstanding balance before the court that set the support obligation.

Cooperation of W-2 participants

Under current law, DWD must establish a uniform system of fees for services provided to individuals under the child and spousal support and establishment of paternity and medical liability support program. Individuals who receive foster care aid, aid to families with dependent children, medical assistance, Wisconsin works (W-2) benefits or kinship care payments are exempt from the fee. This bill expands the fee exemptions to include recipients of food stamps and federal foster care maintenance payments.

Currently, to fulfill an eligibility requirement under the W-2 program, an individual applying for the W-2 program must cooperate in efforts directed at establishing the paternity of the individual's dependent children and obtaining support payments or any other payments or property to which the individual or his or her dependent children may have rights. An individual who fails 3 times to cooperate remains ineligible for W-2 until the individual cooperates or for a period of 6 months, whichever is later.

This bill requires, as a condition of eligibility, that every parent in the individual's W-2 group cooperate with paternity establishment and child and spousal support efforts for any minor child of that parent regardless of whether the child resides with that parent and regardless of whether that parent is applying for W-2. An individual who is a member of a W-2 group that fails 3 times to cooperate with the paternity establishment or support efforts is ineligible for W-2 until the W-2 group cooperates or for a period of 6 months, whichever is later.

Health care coverage notice

Under current law, if a court orders child support in an action affecting the family, the court is required to assign responsibility for payment of the child's health care expenses. The court may order a parent to initiate or continue health insurance coverage for the child. If the court orders a parent who is eligible for family coverage under an employer-provided plan to provide coverage of the child's health care expenses, the employer is required to provide family coverage for the parent and child, without regard to any enrollment or waiting period restrictions that may apply, upon the application of the parent who is the employee, the child's other parent, DWD or the county child support agency.

This bill provides that, if a parent who provides health care coverage for a child under a court order changes employers and the parent has a court-ordered child support obligation with respect to the child, the county child support agency must notify both the parent and the parent's new employer of the health care coverage order. If the employer provides health care coverage for its employees and the parent is eligible for family coverage under the health benefit plan, the employer must enroll the child in the health benefit plan upon receiving notice of the order. The notice to the parent must inform the parent that coverage for the child will be in effect upon receipt of the notice by the employer. Within 10 days after receiving the notice, the parent may request a hearing before the court or family court commissioner on the issue of whether the order to provide coverage of the child's health care expenses should remain in effect. The bill also requires the employer to notify the county child support agency when the child is covered under the health benefit plan and to provide necessary plan identification to the child's other parent upon request.

Voluntary paternity acknowledgment information

Under current law, if a child's birth occurs in or en route to a hospital and if the child's parents are unmarried, the hospital administrator or his or her designee must provide the child's mother with a voluntary paternity acknowledgment form and with a pamphlet that has information about birth certificates, including how to add to a birth certificate the name of the father of a child whose parents were not married. The hospital must submit any completed forms to the state registrar. (Beginning on January 1, 1998, DWD must pay the filing party a financial incentive for correctly filing a form within 60 days after the child's birth.) The fee for making an alteration in a birth certificate is $10. Upon receipt of the voluntary acknowledgement form and the fee, the state registrar must insert the name of the father on the birth certificate.

This bill requires that trained, designated hospital staff provide to the child's available unmarried parents oral information or an audio or video presentation and written information about the voluntary paternity acknowledgment form and about the significance and benefits of, and alternatives to, establishing paternity, before the parents sign the form. The bill provides immunity from civil liability for trained, designated hospital staff who provide this information in good faith. The staff must also provide an opportunity to complete the form and to have the form notarized in the hospital. DWD must provide to hospitals the written information required to be provided to parents and must provide training to hospital staff concerning the voluntary acknowledgment form and the significance and benefits of, and alternatives to, establishing paternity.

Conversion of child support orders to sum certain amounts

Under current law, a child support obligation may be expressed as a sum certain amount or as a percentage of a parent's income. Consequently, an income-withholding order that is sent to an employer for withholding child support from a parent's income may require a percentage of the parent's income or a sum certain amount to be withheld. Under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, an employer that receives an income-withholding order from another state must comply with the order if it satisfies certain requirements, one of which is that the amount of support to be withheld is expressed as a sum certain amount. This bill authorizes a county child support agency to convert a support amount in an income-withholding order that is expressed as a percentage of income to the equivalent sum certain amount for purposes of enforcing a support order in another state.

Paternity presumption

Under current law, a man is presumed to be the natural father of a child if he was married to the child's mother when the child was conceived or born or if he and the child's mother married after the child's birth but had a relationship during the period of time within which the child was conceived. In a paternity action, if genetic tests show that a man alleged to be the father is not excluded as the father and that the probability that he is the father is 99.0% or more, that man is presumed to be the father. This bill provides that a presumption of paternity that arises on the basis of marriage is rebutted in a legal action or proceeding by results of a genetic test that show that a man other than the one presumed to be the father is not excluded as the father and that the statistical probability that the man is the father is 99.0% or higher, even if the man who is presumed to be the father on the basis of marriage is unavailable to submit to genetic tests.

Miscellaneous paternity and support changes

Under current law, an order for child or family support or maintenance is an automatic assignment of wages or other earnings to the clerk of court. When a support or maintenance order is entered, the court must send notice of the assignment by regular mail to a payer's employer or other person who owes the payer money, requiring withholding of the amount provided in the support order. The support and withholding orders may be expressed as a fixed sum, as a percentage of income or as both in the alternative, requiring payment of the greater or lesser amount. If the payer is entitled to unemployment compensation, however, the order to withhold benefits must be for an amount certain.

This bill authorizes the court to send notice of assignment by facsimile machine or other electronic means in addition to regular mail. Orders for the withholding of unemployment compensation may be expressed as a fixed sum, as a percentage of benefits payable or as both in the alternative, requiring payment of the greater or lesser amount. Notices of assignment for withholding must include the information that the maximum amount withheld may not exceed the maximum amount that is subject to garnishment under federal law.

Under current law, if the petitioner in a paternity action fails to appear at a pretrial hearing or at the trial, the court may dismiss the action. If the respondent in a paternity action is the alleged father and he fails to appear for a court-ordered genetic test or a hearing at which an appearance is required, the court must adjudicate the respondent to be the father. The bill provides that, if the mother of the child in a paternity action fails to appear for a court-ordered genetic test or a hearing at which an appearance is required, the court may adjudicate the alleged father, or the man who alleges that he is the father, to be the father of the child if there is sufficient evidence for such a finding.

Under current law, tax returns are open to examination by state employes for the purpose of administering the child and spousal support program. The purpose of that program, which is administered by DWD, is to establish paternity and to establish, revise if appropriate and enforce support obligations. This bill provides that employes of county child support agencies may also examine tax returns for the purpose of administering the child and spousal support program. The county child support agencies administer the program at the local level.

This bill makes 3 changes to the paternity statutes. Under current law, a court must order genetic tests in a paternity matter upon the request of a party if there is probable cause to believe that any of the males in the action had sexual intercourse with the child's mother at the possible time of conception. Probable cause may be shown by a sufficient petition or affidavit of the mother. This bill adds that probable cause may also be shown by a sufficient petition or affidavit of an alleged father or by sworn testimony of the mother or an alleged father. Under current law, a court may not make a temporary order for support, legal custody or physical placement in a paternity matter unless the alleged father has been adjudicated to be the father, or unless the alleged father is presumed to be the father because he and the child's mother married after the birth of the child but had a relationship during the time in which the child was conceived or because he and the child's mother were married when the child was conceived or born but have since divorced. This bill provides that the court must make a temporary order for child support and may make a temporary order assigning responsibility for and directing the manner of payment of the child's health care expenses, upon the motion of a party, if genetic tests do not exclude the alleged father and show that the statistical probability of his parentage is 99% or higher. The bill also provides that bills for articles or services related to the pregnancy, childbirth or genetic testing may be admitted into evidence and are sufficient evidence in themselves to show those expenses.

Under current law, interest of 1.5% per month accrues on child support that is not paid on time, beginning on the first day of the 2nd month after the month in which the payment was due. This bill changes the time at which the interest begins to accrue to the first day of the 4th month beginning after the month in which the payment was due.

Under current law, a person who requests a 2nd or subsequent series of genetic tests in a paternity action may be required to pay for the tests in advance. The bill provides that the judge or family court commissioner hearing the matter must require the person to pay for the tests in advance unless the judge or family court commissioner finds the person to be indigent.

The bill makes a few other minor changes to the child support statutes, including: requiring the addition of children's social security numbers to petitions filed in actions affecting the family (currently only the parties' social security numbers are required), requiring child support that is received to be credited first to the payment of support that is due within the calendar month during which it is received (currently support received is credited first to the payment of support that is due within the calendar month during which it is withheld from income), requiring persons (usually employers) who withhold child support from a payer's income to report to the clerk of court the gross amount of income from which the child support was withheld and providing that support under an existing order for a child who is later placed in a state institution is assigned to the state (currently the statutes provide that a court may order that support be paid to the institution if the child is in an institution when the support is first ordered).

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

5 (a) concerning obligors who do not have an interest in an account maintained at the 6 financial institution.

7 (4) STATE MATCHING OPTION. (a) If a financial institution with which the 8 department has an agreement under sub. (2) elects to use the state matching option 9 under this subsection, the financial institution shall periodically provide the 10 department with information concerning all accounts maintained at the financial 11 institution. For each account maintained at the financial institution, the financial 12 institution shall notify the department of the account number, the account type, the 13 balance of the account, and the name, address and social security number or other 14 tax identification number of each person having an interest in the account, together 15 with a description of each person's interest. The information required under this 16 paragraph shall be provided in the manner, and shall contain the information, 17 specified by rule or agreement. To the extent feasible, the notice required under this 18 paragraph shall be provided to the department by an automated data exchange.

19 (b) The department shall take actions necessary to determine whether any 20 obligor has an interest in an account maintained at a financial institution providing 21 information under par. (a).

22 (c) The department may use the information provided by a financial institution 23 under par. (a) only for the purpose of matching records under par. (b). The 24 department may not disclose or retain information received under par. (a) concerning 25 account holders who are not delinquent obligors.

1 (5) DELEGATION. The department may delegate any powers and duties given 2 to the department under this section to county child support agencies. The 3 department may require financial institutions to provide county child support 4 agencies with any notices that are required under this section to be provided to the 5 department.

6 SECTION 67. 49.854 of the statutes is created to read:

7 49.854 Liens against property for delinquent support payments. (1)

8 DEFINITIONS. In this section:

9 (a) “Department” means the department of workforce development.

10 (b) “County child support agency” means the county child support agency under 11 s. 59.53 (5).

12 (c) “Levy” means all powers of distraint and seizure.

13 (d) “Obligor” means a person who is obligated to pay court-ordered support.

14 (e) “Property” includes real and personal property, tangible and intangible 15 property and rights to property, but is limited to property and rights of the obligor 16 to property existing at the time of levy.

17 (f) “Support” means any of the following:

18 1. Child or family support.

19 2. Maintenance.

20 3. Medical expenses of a child.

21 4. Birth expenses.

22 5. Any accrued interest on delinquent amounts under subds. 1. to 4.

23 (2) CREATION OF LIEN; SATISFACTION. (a) Creation. If a person obligated to pay 24 support fails to pay any court-ordered amount of support, that amount becomes a

1 lien in favor of the department upon all property of the person when the lien is 2 entered in the statewide support lien docket under par. (b).

3 (b) Statewide support lien docket. The department shall maintain a statewide 4 support lien docket. For each county in the state, the department shall provide a copy 5 of the statewide support lien docket to the register of deeds or the county child 6 support agency. Each entry in the statewide support lien docket shall contain the 7 name and the social security number of the obligor.

8 (c) Updating the statewide support lien docket. The department shall update 9 the statewide support lien docket in response to orders issued by a court or family 10 court commissioner.

11 (d) Amount of lien; satisfaction. The amount of any support obligation that is 12 a lien under this subsection may be determined by requesting that information from 13 the county child support agency or the register of deeds, as specified by the 14 department. Payment of the full amount that is delinquent at the time of payment 15 to that county child support agency extinguishes that lien. Upon request, the county 16 child support agency shall furnish to the payer of the delinquent amount a 17 satisfaction of lien showing that the amount of support owed has been paid in full and 18 that the person no longer owes the delinquent amount. The satisfaction of lien may 19 be recorded in the office of the register of deeds for any county in which real or 20 personal property of the person who owed the support is located.

21 (3) NOTIFICATION AND APPEAL OF AUTOMATIC LIEN. (a) Notice and hearing. When 22 a delinquent support obligation is included in the statewide support lien docket, the 23 department shall provide notice to the obligor that a lien exists with respect to the 24 delinquent support obligation. The notice shall inform the obligor that the lien is in 25 effect and that the obligor may, within a 20-day period, by motion, request a court

1 hearing on the issue of whether support is owed by the obligor. If the obligor makes 2 a timely request for a hearing under this subsection, the court or family court 3 commissioner shall schedule a hearing within 10 business days after the date of the 4 request. If, at the hearing, the obligor establishes that the lien is not proper because 5 of a mistake of fact, the court or family court commissioner shall order the 6 department to remove the lien from the statewide support lien docket.

7 (b) Appeal. If a family court commissioner conducts the hearing under par. (a), 8 the department or the obligor may, within 15 business days after the date of the 9 decision by the family court commissioner, request review of the decision by the court 10 having jurisdiction over the action. The court conducting the review may order that 11 the lien be withdrawn from the statewide support lien dockets. If no appeal is sought 12 or the court does not order the withdrawal of the lien, the department may take 13 appropriate actions to enforce the lien.

14 (4) POWERS OF LEVY AND DISTRAINT; GENERALLY. If any obligor neglects or refuses 15 to pay the support owed by the obligor after the department has made demand for 16 payment, the department may collect that support and the levy fees and costs under 17 sub. (11) by levy upon any property belonging to the obligor as provided in subs. (5) 18 to (7). Whenever the value of any property that has been levied upon under this 19 subsection is not sufficient to satisfy the claim of the department, the department 20 may levy upon any additional property of the obligor until the support owed and levy 21 costs are fully paid.

22 (5) LEVYING AGAINST FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS. (a) Definitions. In this subsection:

23 1. "Account" has the meaning given in s. 49.853 (1) (a).

24 2. "Financial institution" has the meaning given in s. 49.853 (1) (c).

1 (b) Notice to the financial institution. To enforce a lien under this section by 2 levying against an account at a financial institution, the department shall send a 3 notice of levy to the financial institution instructing the financial institution to 4 prohibit the closing of or withdrawals from one or more accounts that the obligor 5 owns in whole or in part, up to a total amount that is sufficient to pay the support 6 owed, financial institution fees under par. (e) and estimated levy fees and costs under 7 sub. (11), until further notice from the department or a court. If the financial 8 institution has not received instructions from the department or a court to release 9 the funds within 21 days of the date of the notice of levy, the financial institution shall 10 remit the amount specified in the notice to the department.

11 (d) Notice to the obligor. No later than the next day after the department sends 12 notice of levy to the financial institution under par. (b), the department shall send 13 a copy of the notice of levy to the obligor. The department shall also send a copy of 14 the notice of levy to any other person in whose name the account is held. The notices 15 required under this paragraph shall be in the form determined by the department, 16 however the notice sent to the obligor shall include language stating all of the 17 following:

- 18 1. That the obligor has been certified as delinquent in paying support.
- 19 2. The amount of the support owed.
- 20 3. The financial institution to which the department sent the notice under par.

21 (b).

22 4. That one or more accounts owned in whole or in part by the obligor at the 23 financial institution have been frozen, up to a total amount that is sufficient pay the 24 support owed, the department's levy costs and financial institution fees.

1 5. That, unless the financial institution has received instructions from the 2 department or a court to release the funds within 21 days of the date of the notice of 3 levy, the financial institution will remit the funds to the department.

4 6. That, the obligor may request a hearing within 20 days after the date of the 5 notice.

6 7. The address to which the request for hearing must be mailed or delivered in 7 order to schedule a hearing.

8 (e) Financial institution fees. In addition to the levy fee authorized under sub.
9 (11) (a), a financial institution may collect any early withdrawal penalty incurred 10 under the terms of an account as a result of the levy. Financial institution fees 11 authorized under this paragraph may be charged to the account immediately prior 12 to the remittance of the amount to the department under par. (a) and may be charged 13 even if the amounts in the obligor's accounts are insufficient to pay the total amount 14 of support owed and the department's levy costs under sub. (11) (b).

15 (f) Hearings. A hearing requested under par. (d) 6. shall be conducted before 16 the circuit court rendering the order to pay support. Within 10 business days after 17 receiving a request for hearing under par. (d) 6., the court shall set the matter for 18 hearing. The family court commissioner may conduct the hearing. The sole issue at 19 the hearing shall be whether the account holder owes the amount of support 20 certified. If the court or family court commissioner determines that the account 21 holder does not owe support or owes less than the amount claimed by the 22 department, the department shall return the seized funds or the excess of the seized 23 funds over the amount of the delinquency to the account holder.

24 (6) LEVYING AGAINST OTHER PERSONAL PROPERTY. (a) When notice of seizure 25 required. If the department has enforced a lien under this section by levying against

1 personal property, the department shall immediately notify the obligor that the 2 property has been seized. The department shall provide the notice of seizure under 3 this paragraph to any person known to have a lien on the property and, if the property 4 is titled, to the state agency that titles the property. A state agency receiving a notice 5 under this paragraph may not transfer title to the personal property described in the 6 notice, except on the instructions of a court or the department.

7 (b) Content of notice of seizure. The notice provided under par. (a) shall include 8 all of the following:

9 1. The name of the obligor and the amount of the support owed.

10 2. A description of the personal property seized.

11 3. A statement that the obligor may, within 20 business days after the date of 12 the notice, request a hearing on the questions of whether past-due support is owed 13 and whether the property was wrongfully seized.

14 4. A statement that the hearing may be requested by filing a motion with the 15 court issuing the order to pay the support.

16 (c) Hearing. If a hearing is requested under par. (b) 4., the court or family court 17 commissioner shall schedule a hearing within 10 business days after receiving the 18 request under par. (b) 4. If, at the hearing, the obligor establishes that the seizure 19 of the personal property was not proper because of a mistake of fact, the court or 20 family court commissioner shall direct that the department or its designee return the 21 seized personal property within 15 business days. If a family court commissioner 22 conducts the hearing under this paragraph, the department or the obligor may, 23 within 15 business days after the date that the family court commissioner made his 24 or her decision, request review of the decision by the court with jurisdiction over the 25 action. The court reviewing the decision may order the department to return the 1 seized property or may authorize the sale of the property by the department. If the 2 department is ordered to return seized property under this paragraph, the court 3 shall instruct any state agency responsible for titling the property that it may 4 transfer title to the property without receiving instructions from a court or the 5 department under par. (a).

6 (d) Notice of sale. As soon as practicable after seizing the personal property and 7 after any requested hearings are conducted under par. (c), the department shall send 8 a notice to the obligor indicating when and where the property will be sold. The 9 department shall publish or post the time and date of sale.

10 (e) Redemption. At any time after receiving the notice of sale under par. (d), 11 but before the property is sold, the obligor may redeem the property by paying the 12 total past-due support owed together with any levy fees and costs under sub. (11).
13 If the obligor redeems the property, the department shall instruct the titling agency 14 that the agency may transfer title to the property without receiving instructions from 15 a court or the department under par. (a).

16 (f) Sale. The date of sale must be no more than 60 days after the date of the 17 notice of sale under par. (d). The department shall give the purchaser of property 18 under this paragraph a certificate of sale upon payment in full of the purchase price.
19 If the property seized and sold is titled property, the department shall direct the state 20 agency that titled the property to transfer the title of the property to the purchaser 21 of the property.

22 (7) LEVYING AGAINST REAL PROPERTY. (a) When notice of intent to levy required.
23 To enforce a lien under this section by levying against real property, the department 24 shall provide the obligor with a notice of intent to levy. A copy of the notice shall be 25 provided to the register of deeds in the county where the real property is located and

1 to any persons known to have a lien against the real property. A register of deeds 2 receiving a notice of intent to levy under this paragraph shall file the notice of intent 3 to levy. After receiving a notice of intent to levy under this paragraph, the register 4 of deeds may not record a deed for the property, except on the instructions of a court 5 or the department.

6 (b) Content of notice of intent. The notice provided under par. (a) shall include 7 all of the following:

8 1. The name of the obligor and the amount of the support owed.

9 2. A description of the real property against which the department intends to 10 levy.

11 3. A statement that the obligor may, within 20 business days after the date of 12 the notice, request a hearing on the question of whether past-due support is owed.

13 4. A statement that the hearing may be requested by filing a motion with the 14 court issuing the order to pay the support.

15 5. In notices being provided to known lienholders, a request that the lienholder 16 notify the department, within 10 days after receiving the notice under par. (a), of the 17 amount of the lienholder's lien on the property.

18 (c) Hearing. If a hearing is requested under par. (b) 4., the court or family court 19 commissioner shall schedule a hearing within 10 business days after receiving the 20 request under par. (b) 4. If, at the hearing, the obligor establishes that enforcing a 21 lien against the real property would not be proper because of a mistake of fact, the 22 court or family court commissioner shall direct the department not to proceed with 23 the levy. If a family court commissioner conducts the hearing under this paragraph, 24 the department or the obligor may, within 15 business days after the date that the 25 family court commissioner made his or her decision, request review of the decision

1 by the court with jurisdiction over the action. The court reviewing the decision may 2 direct the department not to proceed with the levy or may authorize the sale of the 3 property by the department.

4 (d) Final notice. Unless the department has been directed not to proceed with 5 the levy in a hearing under par. (c) or unless the obligor has paid the support owed 6 and any levy fees and costs under sub. (11), the department may send to the obligor 7 a final notice of intent to seize and sell the property. The final notice may not be sent 8 until 20 days after the date of the notice of intent to levy under par. (a) or after any 9 requested hearings under par. (c) have been completed. The final notice shall include 10 a date by which the obligor must vacate the premises and a date on which the 11 property will be sold, unless the obligor pays the support owed and any levy fees and 12 costs under sub. (11). The date in the notice by which the obligor must vacate the 13 premises must be at least 60 days after the date that the final notice is sent and the 14 date of sale must be at least 90 days after the date that the final notice is sent. The 15 department shall provide a copy of any final notice under this paragraph to the 16 register of deeds in the county where the real property is located. A register of deeds 17 receiving a final notice under this paragraph shall file the final notice.

18 (e) Sale. The department shall publicly advertise the time and place of the sale 19 of real property seized under this subsection in the manner specified under s. 815.31 20 (1) to (3). The obligor may redeem the property prior to the date of sale by paying the 21 full amount of support owed together with any levy fees and costs under sub. (11).
22 If the obligor has failed to redeem the property and has failed to vacate the property 23 prior to the date specified in the final notice, the department may issue an 24 administrative order directing a local law enforcement agency or official to escort the 25 obligor and any other residents off the property. The department shall establish

1 procedures for conducting sales of property under this paragraph and for issuing 2 deeds to property sold under this paragraph.

3 (8) DUTIES TO SURRENDER; GENERALLY. Any person in possession of or obligated 4 with respect to property or rights to property that is subject to levy under this section 5 and upon which a levy has been made shall, upon demand of the department, 6 surrender the property or rights or discharge the obligation to the department, 7 except that part of the property or rights that is, at the time of the demand, subject 8 to any prior attachment or execution under any judicial process.

9 (9) NOTICE. Any notice required to be provided under this section may be 10 provided by sending the notice by regular mail to the last-known address of the 11 person to whom notice is to be sent.

12 (11) LEVY FEES AND COSTS. (a) Third parties. Any 3rd party is entitled to a levy 13 fee of $5 for each levy in any case where property is secured through the levy. The 14 3rd party shall deduct the fee from the proceeds of the levy.

15 (b) The department. The department may assess a collection fee to recover the 16 department's costs incurred in levying against property under this section. The 17 department shall determine its costs to be paid in all cases of levy. The obligor is 18 liable to the department for the amount of the collection fee authorized under this 19 paragraph. Fees collected under this paragraph shall be credited to the 20 appropriation account under s. 20.445 (1) (L).

21 (12) PRIORITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS. (a) Priorities. A lien on property that is 22 entered in the statewide support lien docket has priority over all other liens on the 23 property that are unperfected at the time that the lien is entered in the statewide 24 support lien docket.

1 (b) Use of proceeds. After paying any liens on a property that have priority over 2 a lien under this section, the department shall apply all proceeds from a sale of that 3 property under this section first against the support in respect to which the levy was 4 made and then against levy fees and costs under sub. (11).

5 (c) Refunds or credits. The department may refund or credit any amount left 6 after the applications under par. (a), upon submission of a claim therefor and 7 satisfactory proof of the claim, to the person entitled to that amount.

8 (13) RELEASE OF LEVY; SUSPENSION OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE LIEN. (a) Release.
9 The department may release the levy upon all or part of property levied upon to 10 facilitate the collection of the liability or to grant relief from a wrongful levy, but that 11 release does not prevent any later levy.

12 (b) Settlement. If the county child support agency accepts a plan for the 13 payment of support owed by an obligor, the department shall suspend all actions to 14 enforce a lien under this section as long as the obligor remains in compliance with 15 the payment plan.

16 (14) WRONGFUL LEVY. If the department determines that property has been 17 wrongfully levied upon, the department may return the property at any time, or may 18 return an amount of money equal to the amount of money, or value of the property, 19 levied upon.

20 (15) ACTIONS AGAINST THIS STATE. (a) Commencement of actions. If the 21 department has levied upon property, any person, other than the obligor who is liable 22 to pay the support out of which the levy arose, who claims an interest in or lien on 23 that property and claims that that property was wrongfully levied upon may bring 24 a civil action against the state in the circuit court for Dane County. If the county child 25 support agency has levied upon property pursuant to delegated authority under sub.

1 (17), any person, other than the obligor who is liable to pay the support out of which 2 the levy arose, who claims an interest in or lien on that property and claims that that 3 property was wrongfully levied upon may bring a civil action against the county child 4 support agency in the circuit court for the county where the court order for the 5 payment of support, upon which the seizure is based, was first entered or last 6 modified. That action may be brought whether or not that property has been 7 surrendered to the department or the county child support agency. The court may 8 grant only the relief under par. (b). No other action to question the validity of or 9 restrain or enjoin a levy by the department or a county child support agency may be 10 maintained.

11 (b) Remedies. In an action under par. (a), if a levy would irreparably injure 12 rights to property, the court may enjoin the enforcement of that levy. If the court 13 determines that the property has been wrongfully levied upon, it may grant a 14 judgment for the amount of money obtained by levy.

15 (c) Validity of determination. For purposes of an adjudication under this 16 subsection, the support obligation upon which the lien is based is conclusively 17 presumed to be valid.

18 (17) DELEGATION AND POWER TO CONTRACT. (a) The department may delegate any 19 duties or powers given to the department under this section to county child support 20 agencies, except that the department must approve the initiation of any levy 21 proceedings under sub. (7).

22 (b) The department may contract with a county sheriff to sell property seized 23 under subs. (6) and (7).

24 (18) PRESERVATION OF REMEDIES. The availability of the remedies under this 25 section does not abridge the right of the department to pursue other remedies.

1 SECTION 68. 49.856 of the statutes is created to read:

2 49.856 Notification of delinquent payments. (1) In this section:

3 (a) “Agency” means the county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5).

4 (b) “Department” means the department of workforce development.

5 (c) “Obligor” means a person who owes a delinquent child support, family 6 support or maintenance payment or who owes an outstanding amount that has been 7 ordered by a court for past support, medical expenses or birth expenses and that 8 delinquent payment or outstanding amount has been certified by the department 9 under s. 49.855.

10 (2) If the department certifies a delinquent payment or outstanding amount 11 under s. 49.855 (1) and the obligor receives a judgment against another person or has 12 settled a lawsuit against another person that provides for the payment of money, the 13 department or agency may send a notice to any person who is ordered to pay the 14 judgment, who has agreed to the settlement or who holds the amount of the judgment 15 or settlement in trust. The notice shall inform the person that the amount of the 16 judgment or settlement due the obligor is subject to a lien by the department for the 17 payment of the delinquent payment or outstanding amount certified under s. 49.855.
18 The notification shall include the name and address of the obligor and the total 19 amount certified under s. 49.855. Upon receipt of a notification, the person receiving 20 the notification shall withhold an amount equal to the amount certified under s.
21 49.855 before making any payment under the judgment or pursuant to the 22 settlement.

23 (3) When the department or agency notifies a person under sub. (2), the 24 department or agency shall send a notice to the last-known address of the obligor.
25 The notice shall do all of the following:

1 (a) Inform the obligor that the department or agency notified the person who 2 owes money to the obligor or who holds money in trust for the obligor under a 3 judgment or pursuant to a settlement to withhold the amount that was certified 4 under s. 49.855 from any lump sum payment that may be paid to the obligor as a 5 result of the judgment or settlement.

6 (b) Inform the obligor that he or she may request a hearing before the circuit 7 court that rendered the order to pay support, maintenance, medical expenses or birth 8 expenses within 20 days after receipt of this notice.

9 (c) Inform the obligor that if a hearing is requested under par. (b) the 10 department or agency will not require the person withholding the amount to send the 11 amount to that department or agency until a final decision is issued in response to 12 the request for a hearing.

13 (d) Request that the obligor inform the department or agency if a bankruptcy 14 stay is in effect with respect to the obligor.

15 (4) If the obligor requests a hearing under sub. (3) (b), the circuit court shall, 16 within 10 days after receiving the request, set the matter for a hearing. The only 17 issue at the hearing shall be whether the person owes the delinquent payment or 18 outstanding amount certified under s. 49.855. A family court commissioner may 19 conduct the hearing.

20 (5) Receipt of a notification by a person under sub. (2) shall constitute a lien, 21 equal to the amount certified, on any lump sum payment resulting from a judgment 22 or settlement that may be due the obligor. The department or agency shall notify the 23 person who received the notification under sub. (2) that the obligor has not requested 24 a hearing or, if he or she has requested a hearing, of the results of that hearing, and 25 of the responsibilities of the person who received the notification under sub. (2), 1 including the requirement to submit the amount certified under s. 49.855. Use of the 2 procedures under this section does not prohibit the department or agency from 3 attempting to recover the amount certified under s. 49.855 through other legal 4 means. The department or agency shall promptly notify any person who receives 5 notification under sub. (2) if the amount certified under s. 49.855 has been recovered 6 by some other means and no longer must be withheld from the judgment or 7 settlement under this section.

8 SECTION 69. 49.857 of the statutes is created to read:

9 49.857 Administrative enforcement of support; denial, nonrenewal, 10 restriction and suspension of licenses. (1) In this section:

14 granted under chs. 440 to 480.

16 credentialing board in the department of regulation and licensing that grants a 17 credential.

15 consider whether a child is covered under a parent's health insurance policy or plan 16 at the time the court enters an order under this paragraph, the availability of health 17 insurance to each parent through an employer or other organization, the extent of 18 coverage available to a child and the costs to the parent for the coverage of the child.
19 A parent may be required to initiate or continue health care insurance coverage for 20 a child under this subdivision. If a parent is required to do so, he or she shall provide 21 copies of necessary program or policy identification to the other parent and is liable 22 for any health care costs for which he or she receives direct payment from an insurer.
23 This paragraph may not be construed to limit the authority of the court or family 24 court commissioner to enter or modify support orders containing provisions for

1 payment of medical expenses, medical costs, or insurance premiums that are in 2 addition to and not inconsistent with this paragraph.

3 3. a. In directing the manner of payment of a child's health care expenses, the 4 court or family court commissioner may order that payment, including payment for 5 health insurance premiums, be withheld from income and sent to the appropriate 6 health care insurer, provider or plan, as provided in s. 767.265 (3h), or sent to the 7 clerk of court or support collection designee, whichever is appropriate, for 8 disbursement to the person for whom the payment has been awarded if that person 9 is not a health care insurer, provider or plan. If the court or family court 10 commissioner orders income withholding and assignment for the payment of health 11 care expenses, the court or family court commissioner shall send notice of 12 assignment in the manner provided under s. 767.265 (2r) and may include that notice 13 of assignment with a notice of assignment under s. 767.265. The clerk of court shall 14 keep a record of all moneys received and disbursed by the clerk for health care 15 expenses that are directed to be paid to the clerk and the support collection designee 16 shall keep a record of all moneys received and disbursed by the support collection 17 designee for health care expenses that are directed to be paid to the support collection 18 designee.

19 b. If the court or family court commissioner orders a parent to initiate or 20 continue health insurance coverage for a child under a health insurance policy that 21 is available to the parent through an employer or other organization but the court 22 or family court commissioner does not specify the manner in which payment of the 23 health insurance premiums shall be made, the clerk of court may provide notice of 24 assignment in the manner provided under s. 767.265 (2r) for the withholding from 25 income of the amount necessary to pay the health insurance premiums. That notice

1 of assignment may be sent with or included as part of any other notice of assignment 2 under s. 767.265, if appropriate. A person who receives the notice of assignment shall 3 send the withheld health insurance premiums to the appropriate health care 4 insurer, provider or plan, as provided in s. 767.265 (3h).

5 4. If the court or family court commissioner orders a parent to provide coverage 6 of the health care expenses of the parent's child and the parent is eligible for family 7 coverage of health care expenses under a health benefit plan that is provided by an 8 employer on an insured or on a self-insured basis, the employer shall do all of the 9 following:

10 a. Permit the parent to obtain family coverage of health care expenses for the 11 child, if eligible for coverage, without regard to any enrollment period or waiting 12 period restrictions that may apply.

13 b. Provide family coverage of health care expenses for the child, if eligible for 14 coverage, upon application by the parent, the child's other parent, the department 15 or the county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5), or upon receiving a notice under 16 subd. 6.

17 bm. Inform the county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5) when coverage 18 of the child under the health benefit plan is in effect and, upon request, provide copies 19 of necessary program or policy identification to the child's other parent.

20 c. After the child has coverage under the employer's health benefit plan, and 21 as long as the parent is eligible for family coverage under the employer's health 22 benefit plan, continue to provide coverage for the child unless the employer receives 23 satisfactory written evidence that the order of the court or family court commissioner 24 is no longer in effect or that the child has coverage of health care expenses under

1 another health insurance policy or health benefit plan that provides comparable 2 coverage of health care expenses.

3 5. a. If a parent who has been ordered by a court or family court commissioner 4 to provide coverage of the health care expenses of a child who is eligible for medical 5 assistance under subch. IV of ch. 49 receives payment from a 3rd party for the cost 6 of services provided to the child but does not pay the health care provider for the 7 services or reimburse the department or any other person who paid for the services 8 on behalf of the child, the department may obtain a judgment against the parent for 9 the amount of the 3rd party payment.

10 b. Section 767.265 (4) applies to a garnishment based on a judgment obtained 11 under subd. 5. a.

12 6. a. If a parent who provides coverage of the health care expenses of a child 13 under an order under this paragraph changes employers and that parent has a 14 court-ordered child support obligation with respect to the child, the county child 15 support agency under s. 59.53 (5) shall provide notice of the order to provide coverage 16 of the child's health care expenses to the new employer and to the parent.

17 b. The notice provided to the parent shall inform the parent that coverage for 18 the child under the new employer's health benefit plan will be in effect upon the 19 employer's receipt of the notice. The notice shall inform the parent that he or she 20 may, within 10 days after receiving the notice, by motion request a hearing before the 21 court on the issue of whether the order to provide coverage of the child's health care 22 expenses should remain in effect. A motion under this subd. 6. b. may be heard by 23 a family court commissioner. If the parent requests a hearing and the court or family 24 court commissioner determines that the order to provide coverage of the child's 1 health care expenses should not remain in effect, the court shall provide notice to the 2 employer that the order is no longer in effect.

3 (c) 1. In making an order of legal custody under par. (a), the court or family court 4 commissioner shall require a parent who is not granted legal custody to provide to 5 the court medical and medical history information that is known to the parent. If the 6 court or family court commissioner orders joint legal custody, the court or family 7 court commissioner shall require each parent to provide to the court medical and 8 medical history information that is known to the parent. The court shall keep the 9 information confidential and may release it only as provided in this paragraph. The 10 information provided shall include all of the following:

11 a. The known medical history of the parent providing the information, 12 including specific information about stillbirths or congenital anomalies in the 13 parent's family, and the medical histories, if known, of the parents and siblings of the 14 parent and any sibling of the child who is a child of the parent, except that medical 15 history information need not be provided for a sibling of the child if the parent or 16 other person who is granted legal custody of the child also has legal custody, 17 including joint legal custody, of that sibling.

18 b. A report of any medical examination that the parent providing the 19 information had within one year before the date of the order.

20 2. Upon the joint written request of a physician and a parent or other person 21 with legal custody of the child, the court shall release the information provided under 22 subd. 1. to a physician designated in the request. The physician joining in the request 23 need not be the same physician designated in the request. The physician to whom 24 the information is released shall keep the information confidential, but may release 25 to the parent or other person with legal custody who made the request under this

1 subdivision only that portion of the information that the physician determines is 2 relevant to the child's medical condition.

3 (d) 1. Except as provided in par. (e), the court or family court commissioner shall 4 determine child support payments under par. (a) by using the percentage standard 5 established by the department under s. 49.22 (9).

6 2. In determining child support payments under par. (a), the court or family 7 court commissioner may consider all relevant financial information or other 8 information relevant to the parent's earning capacity, including information 9 reported under s. 49.22 (2m) to the department or the county child support agency 10 under s. 59.53 (5).

11 3. Support orders under par. (a) ordinarily shall be for periodic payments which 12 may vary in amount if appropriate. The payment amount may be expressed as a 13 percentage of the parent's income or as a fixed sum, or as a combination of both in 14 the alternative by requiring payment of the greater or lesser of either a percentage 15 of the parent's income or a fixed sum. The father's liability for past support of the 16 child shall be limited to support for the period after the birth of the child.

17 (e) Upon request by a party, the court or family court commissioner may modify 18 the amount of child support payments determined under par. (d) if, after considering 19 the following factors, the court or family court commissioner finds by the greater 20 weight of the credible evidence that use of the percentage standard is unfair to the 21 child or to the requesting party:

22 1. The needs of the child.

23 2. The physical, mental and emotional health needs of the child, including any 24 costs for health insurance as provided for under par. (b).

1 3. The standard of living and circumstances of the parents, including whether 2 a parent receives maintenance payments under s. 767.26 and the needs of each party 3 in order to support himself or herself at a level equal to or greater than that 4 established under 42 USC 9902 (2).

5 4. The relative financial means of the parents.

6 5. The earning capacity of each parent, based on each parent's education, 7 training and work experience and based on the availability of work in or near the 8 parent's community.

9 6. The need and capacity of the child for education, including higher education.

10 7. The age of the child.

11 8. The financial resources and the earning ability of the child.

12 9. Any physical custody arrangement ordered or decided upon.

13 10. Extraordinary travel expenses incurred in exercising the right to periods 14 of physical placement.

15 11. The responsibility of the parents for the support of others.

16 12. The value of services contributed by the custodial parent.

17 13. The best interests of the child.

18 14. Any other factors that the court or family court commissioner in each case 19 determines are relevant to the best interests of the child.

20 (f) If the court or family court commissioner finds under par. (e) that use of the 21 percentage standard is unfair to the child or the requesting party, the court or family 22 court commissioner shall state in writing or on the record the amount of support that 23 would be required by using the percentage standard, the amount by which the court's 24 or family court commissioner's order deviates from that amount, the reasons for

1 finding that use of the percentage standard is unfair to the child or the party, the 2 reasons for the amount of the modification and the basis for the modification.

3 (g) A party ordered to pay child support under this subsection shall pay simple 4 interest at the rate of 1.5% per month on any amount unpaid, commencing the first 5 day of the 4th month after the month in which the amount was due. Interest shall 6 not accrue on amounts not paid on time but paid on or before the first day of the 4th 7 month beginning after the month in which the amount was due. Interest under this 8 paragraph is in lieu of interest computed under s. 807.01 (4), 814.04 (4) or 815.05 (8) 9 and is paid to the clerk of court or support collection designee under s. 767.29. Except 10 as provided in s. 767.29 (1m), the clerk of court or support collection designee, 11 whichever is appropriate, shall apply all payments received for child support as 12 follows:

13 1. First, to payment of child support due within the calendar month during 14 which the payment is received.

15 2. Second, to payment of unpaid child support due before the payment is 16 received.

17 3. Third, to payment of interest accruing on unpaid child support.

18 (5) VOIDING DETERMINATION. (a) A determination of paternity that arises under 19 this section may be voided at any time upon a motion or petition stating facts that 20 show fraud, duress or a mistake of fact. Except for good cause shown, any orders 21 entered under sub. (4) shall remain in effect during the pendency of a proceeding 22 under this paragraph.

23 (b) If a court in a proceeding under par. (a) determines that the man is not the 24 father of the child, the court shall vacate any order entered under sub. (4) with 25 respect to the man. The court shall notify the state registrar, in the manner provided

1 in s. 69.15 (1) (b), to remove the man's name as the father of the child from the child's 2 birth certificate. No paternity action may thereafter be brought against the man 3 with respect to the child.

4 (6) APPLICABILITY. (a) This section does not apply unless all of the following 5 apply to the statement acknowledging paternity:

6 1. The statement is made on a form prescribed by the state registrar for use 7 beginning on April 1, 1998.

8 2. The statement was signed and filed on or after April 1, 1998.

9 3. The statement contains an attestation clause showing that both parties, 10 before signing the statement, received oral and written notice of the legal 11 consequences of, the rights and responsibilities arising from and the alternatives to, 12 signing the statement.

13 (b) Parties who signed and filed a statement acknowledging paternity before 14 April 1, 1998, may sign and file a new statement that fulfills the requirements under 15 par. (a). Such a statement supersedes any statement previously filed with the state 16 registrar and has the effects specified in this section.

17 (c) The notice requirements under s. 69.15 (3) (b) 3. apply to this section 18 beginning with forms for the acknowledgment of paternity that are prescribed by the 19 state registrar on April 1, 1998.

25 appropriate health care insurer, provider or plan, as provided in s. 767.265 (3h), or

1 sent to the department or its designee, whichever is appropriate, for disbursement 2 to the person for whom the payment has been awarded if that person is not a health 3 care insurer, provider or plan. If the court or family court commissioner orders 4 income withholding and assignment for the payment of health care expenses, the 5 court or family court commissioner shall send notice of assignment in the manner 6 provided under s. 767.265 (2r) and may include that notice of assignment with a 7 notice of assignment under s. 767.265. The department or its designee, whichever
