Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law establishes the powers and duties of family, juvenile, probate and part-time court commissioners. In addition, current law establishes how these court commissioners are appointed, who determines how many court commissioners shall be appointed and whether they are classified or unclassified within their respective counties. Currently, some of the powers of each of the different court commissioners are specified in the statutes related to their subject area, such as juvenile court commissioners' duties in chapter 48 and 938 of the statutes. Other duties of these court commissioners are specified in the general court statutes.

In supreme court order 97-10, the supreme court created chapter 75 of the supreme court rules. Those rules, effective January 1, 1999, create two types of court commissioners, circuit court commissioners (formerly included family, juvenile, small claims and probate court commissioners) and supplemental court commissioners (formerly part-time court commissioners). Under these rules, all circuit commissioners are appointed by the chief judge of their judicial administrative district. The powers of those circuit court commissioners are as specified by statute, except that the chief judge may, under the rules, authorize the powers that a specific circuit court commissioner may perform. Chapter 75 of the supreme court rules also authorizes the chief judge to allow a supplemental court commissioner to perform specific duties of a circuit court commissioner on a temporary basis.

This bill consolidates all of the powers and duties of court commissioners into one chapter of the statutes and codifies chapter 75 of the supreme court rules related to the appointment and authority of court commissioners. The bill creates two types of court commissioners, circuit court commissioners and supplemental court commissioners, and gives the chief judge of the judicial administrative district the power to appoint the circuit court commissioners. The bill does not change any of the powers and duties currently provided to court commissioners, but does specify that circuit court commissioners have, in addition to their own specified powers and duties, all of those powers and duties provided to supplemental court commissioners, as court commissioners have under current law.

2 support or support by a spouse and upon approval of each stipulation for child 3 support, unless the court finds that income withholding is likely to cause the payer 4 irreparable harm or unless s. 767.267 applies, the court, family circuit court
5 commissioner or county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5) shall provide notice
6 of the assignment by regular mail or by facsimile machine, as defined in s. 134.72 (1) 7 (a), or other electronic means to the last-known address of the person from whom the 8 payer receives or will receive money. The notice shall provide that the amount 9 withheld may not exceed the maximum amount that is subject to garnishment under 10 15 USC 1673 (b) (2). If the department or its designee, whichever is appropriate, does 11 not receive the money from the person notified, the court, family circuit court 12 commissioner or county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5) shall provide notice 13 of the assignment to any other person from whom the payer receives or will receive

2 which the account is located an authorization for transfer from the account to the 3 department or its designee, whichever is appropriate. The authorization shall be 4 provided on a standard form approved by the court and shall specify the frequency 5 and the amount of transfer, sufficient to meet the payer's obligation under the order 6 or stipulation, as required by the court or family circuit court commissioner. The 7 authorization shall include the payer's consent for the financial institution or an 8 officer, employe or agent of the financial institution to disclose information to the 7 to be paid for the benefit of any person, who is committed by court order to an 8 institution or is in confinement, or whose legal custody is vested by court order under

10 commissioner may order such maintenance payments or support money to be paid

19 during that period, is assigned to the state. If the judgment or order providing for 20 the support of a child who is placed in a child caring institution, juvenile correctional 21 institution or state mental institution includes support for one or more other 22 children, the support that is assigned to the state shall be the proportionate share 23 of the child placed in the institution, except as otherwise ordered by the court or 24 family circuit court commissioner on the motion of a party.

25 SECTION 199. 767.293 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 380SECTION 199

2 order for family support under this chapter or a stipulation approved by the court or 3 ~~the family circuit~~ court commissioner for child support under this chapter requires 4 a payer to pay child or family support in an amount that is expressed as a percentage 5 of parental income, the payee, including the state or a county child support agency 6 under s. 59.53 (5) if the state is a real party in interest under s. 767.075 (1), may 7 establish an arrearage by filing an affidavit in the action in which the order for the 8 payment of support was entered or the stipulation for support was approved. The 9 affidavit shall state the amount of the arrearage and the facts supporting a 10 reasonable basis on which the arrearage was determined and may state the payer's 11 current income and the facts supporting a reasonable basis on which the payer's 12 current income was determined. Not later than 60 days after filing the affidavit, the 13 payee shall serve the affidavit on the payer in the manner provided in s. 801.11 (1) 14 (a) or (b) or by sending the affidavit by registered or certified mail to the last-known 15 address of the payer. After the payee files a proof of service on the payer, the court 16 shall send a notice to the payer by regular, registered or certified mail to the payer's 17 last-known address. The notice shall provide that, unless the payer requests a 18 hearing to dispute the arrearage or the amount of the arrearage not later than 20 19 days after the date of the notice, the court or ~~family circuit~~ court commissioner may 20 enter an order against the payer in the amount stated in the affidavit and may 21 provide notice of assignment under s. 767.265. The notice shall include the mailing 22 address to which the request for hearing must be mailed or delivered in order to 23 schedule a hearing under sub. (2).

24 SECTION 200. 767.293 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 380SECTION 200

1 767.293 (2) If the payer makes a timely request for a hearing, the court or 2 family circuit court commissioner shall hold a hearing on the issue of the amount of 3 the arrearage, if any. If the court or family circuit court commissioner determines 4 after hearing that an arrearage exists, the court or family circuit court commissioner 5 shall enter an order establishing an arrearage in the amount determined by the court 6 or family circuit court commissioner and may send notice of assignment under s.
7 767.265.

8 SECTION 201. 767.293 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

9 767.293 (3) If the court or family circuit court commissioner sends the notice 10 under sub. (1) and the payer fails to make a timely request for a hearing, the court 11 or family circuit court commissioner, if the affidavit demonstrates to the satisfaction 12 of the court or family circuit court commissioner that an arrearage exists, shall enter 13 an order establishing an arrearage in the amount determined by the court or family 14 circuit court commissioner and may send notice of assignment under s. 767.265. The 15 court or family circuit court commissioner shall send the order to the payer's 16 last-known address and shall inform the payer whether an assignment is in effect 17 and that the payer may, within a 10-day period, by motion request a hearing on the 18 issue of whether the order should be vacated or the assignment should be withdrawn.

19 SECTION 202. 767.32 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

20 767.32 (1) (a) After a judgment or order providing for child support under this 21 chapter or s. 48.355 (2) (b) 4., 48.357 (5m), 48.363 (2), 938.183 (4), 938.355 (2) (b) 4., 22 938.357 (5m), 938.363 (2) or 948.22 (7), maintenance payments under s. 767.26 or 23 family support payments under this chapter, or for the appointment of trustees 24 under s. 767.31, the court may, from time to time, on the petition, motion or order to 25 show cause of either of the parties, or upon the petition, motion or order to show cause

ASSEMBLY BILL 380SECTION 202

1 of the department, a county department under s. 46.215, 46.22 or 46.23 or a county 2 child support agency under s. 59.53 (5) if an assignment has been made under s.
3 46.261, 48.57 (3m) (b) 2. or (3n) (b) 2., 49.19 (4) (h) or 49.45 (19) or if either party or 4 their minor children receive aid under s. 48.57 (3m) or (3n) or ch. 49, and upon notice
5 to the office of family court commissioner, revise and alter such judgment or order 6 respecting the amount of such maintenance or child support and the payment 7 thereof, and also respecting the appropriation and payment of the principal and 8 income of the property so held in trust, and may make any judgment or order 9 respecting any of the matters that such court might have made in the original action, 10 except that a judgment or order that waives maintenance payments for either party 11 shall not thereafter be revised or altered in that respect nor shall the provisions of 12 a judgment or order with respect to final division of property be subject to revision 13 or modification. A revision, under this section, of a judgment or order with respect 14 to an amount of child or family support may be made only upon a finding of a 15 substantial change in circumstances. In any action under this section to revise a 16 judgment or order with respect to maintenance payments, a substantial change in 17 the cost of living by either party or as measured by the federal bureau of labor 18 statistics may be sufficient to justify a revision of judgment or order with respect to 19 the amount of maintenance, except that a change in an obligor's cost of living is not 20 in itself sufficient if payments are expressed as a percentage of income.

21 SECTION 203. 767.327 (2) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

22 767.327 (2) (c) Upon receipt of a copy of a notice of objection under par. (a), the 23 court or family circuit court commissioner shall promptly refer the parents for 24 mediation or other family court counseling services under s. 767.11 and may appoint 25 a guardian ad litem. Unless the parents agree to extend the time period, if mediation

1 or counseling services do not resolve the dispute within 30 days after referral, the 2 matter shall proceed under subs. (3) to (5).

3 SECTION 204. 767.33 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 767.33 (2) An adjustment under sub. (1) may be made only if the party receiving 5 payments applies to ~~the family~~ a circuit court commissioner for the adjustment. If 6 the order specifies the date on which the annual adjustment becomes effective, the 7 application to the ~~family~~ circuit court commissioner must be made at least 20 days 8 before the effective date of the adjustment. The ~~family~~ circuit court commissioner, 9 upon application by the party receiving payments, shall send a notice by certified 10 mail to the last-known address of the obligor. The notice shall be postmarked no 11 later than 10 days after the date on which the application was filed and shall inform 12 the obligor that an adjustment in payments will become effective on the date 13 specified in the order or, if no date is specified in the order, 10 days after the date on 14 which the notice is sent. The obligor may, after receipt of notice and before the 15 effective date of the adjustment, request a hearing on the issue of whether the 16 adjustment should take effect, in which case the adjustment shall be held in 17 abeyance pending the outcome of the hearing. The ~~family~~ circuit court commissioner 18 shall hold a hearing requested under this subsection within 10 working days after 19 the request. If at the hearing the obligor establishes that extraordinary 20 circumstances beyond his or her control prevent fulfillment of the adjusted child 21 support obligation, the ~~family~~ circuit court commissioner may direct that all or part 22 of the adjustment not take effect until the obligor is able to fulfill the adjusted 23 obligation. If at the hearing the obligor does not establish that extraordinary 24 circumstances beyond his or her control prevent fulfillment of the adjusted 25 obligation, the adjustment shall take effect as of the date it would have become

1 effective had no hearing been requested. Either party may, within 15 working days 2 of the date of the decision by the family circuit court commissioner under this 3 subsection, seek review of the decision by the court with jurisdiction over the action.

4 SECTION 205. 767.37 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

5 767.37 (1) (a) In any action affecting the family, if the court orders maintenance 6 payments or other allowances for a party or children or retains jurisdiction in such 7 matters, the written judgment shall include a provision that disobedience of the 8 court order with respect to the same is punishable under ch. 785 by commitment to 9 the county jail or house of correction until such judgment is complied with and the 10 costs and expenses of the proceedings are paid or until the party committed is 11 otherwise discharged, according to law. The written judgment in any action affecting 12 the family shall include the social security numbers of the parties and of any child 13 of the parties. The findings of fact and conclusions of law and the written judgment 14 shall be drafted by the attorney for the moving party, and shall be submitted to the 15 court and filed with the clerk of the court within 30 days after judgment is granted; 16 but if the respondent has been represented by counsel, the findings, conclusions and 17 judgment shall first be submitted to respondent's counsel for approval and if the 18 family circuit court commissioner has appeared at the trial of the action, such papers 19 shall also be sent to the family circuit court commissioner for approval. After any 20 necessary approvals are obtained, the findings of fact, conclusions of law and 21 judgment shall be submitted to the court. Final stipulations of the parties may be 22 appended to the judgment and incorporated by reference therein.

23 SECTION 206. 767.37 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

24 767.37 (2) So far as a judgment of divorce affects the marital status of the 25 parties the court has the power to vacate or modify the judgment for sufficient cause

ASSEMBLY BILL 380SECTION 206

1 shown, upon its own motion, or upon the application of both parties to the action, at 2 any time within 6 months from the granting of such judgment. No such judgment 3 shall be vacated or modified without service of notice of motion on the office of family 4 court commissioner. The court may direct ~~the family~~ a circuit court commissioner or 5 appoint some other attorney, to bring appropriate proceedings for the vacation of the 6 judgment. The compensation of the ~~family~~ circuit court commissioner when not on 7 a salaried basis or other attorney for performing such services shall be at the rate of 8 $50 per day, which shall be paid out of the county treasury upon order of the presiding 9 judge and the certificate of the clerk of the court. If the judgment is vacated it shall 10 restore the parties to the marital relation that existed before the granting of such 11 judgment. If after vacation of the judgment either of the parties brings an action in 12 this state for divorce against the other the court may order the petitioner in such 13 action to reimburse the county the amount paid by it to the ~~family~~ circuit court 14 commissioner or other attorney in connection with such vacation proceedings.
15 Whenever a judgment of divorce is set aside under this subsection, the court shall 16 order the record in the action impounded without regard to s. 767.19; and thereafter 17 neither the record nor any part of the record shall be offered or admitted into evidence 18 in any action or proceeding except by special order of the court of jurisdiction upon 19 good cause shown in any paternity proceedings under this chapter or by special order 20 of any court of record upon a showing of necessity to clear title to real estate.

21 SECTION 207. 767.45 (5) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

 4 commenced, or is pending before any judge or circuit court commissioner, in this state 5 or elsewhere. If a paternity judgment has been rendered, or if a paternity action has 6 been dismissed, the petition shall state the court which rendered the judgment or 7 dismissed the action, and the date and the place the judgment was granted if known.
 8 The petition shall also give notice of a party's right to request a genetic test under 9 s. 49.225 or 767.48.

8 alleges that he, not the husband, is the child's father, a party may allege that a
