1     Relating to: commemorating the achievements and contributions of the Veterans
2           of Foreign Wars of the United States of America on the occasion of its 3           centennial.

4           Whereas, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States of America traces 5           its roots back to 1899, when veterans of the Spanish-American War banded together 6           and formed organizations, that would become what is known as the Veterans of 7           Foreign Wars of the United States of America, to help fellow veterans secure pension 8           rights and other benefits for those who served their country; and

9           Whereas, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States of America was 10          officially incorporated in the District of Columbia in 1914 and by Congressional 11          Charter on May 28, 1936; and

12          Whereas, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Department of the great state of 13          Wisconsin called to order its first organizational meeting on June 6, 1921, and has 14          since provided dedicated service to Wisconsin veterans, their families and our 15          communities; and

1           Whereas, today the 2,000,000 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the 2 United States of America continue its proud heritage by providing assistance to 3 veterans and their families in obtaining entitlements and benefits, advocating 4 legislation on behalf of veterans and serving the needs of our country; and

5           Whereas, service projects of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States
6 of America community contribute more than 14,000,000 hours of volunteer service 7 each year to benefit veterans hospitals, youth programs, patriotic endeavors,
8 environmental efforts, safety instruction and thousands of local community 9 activities, and provide more than $2,700,000 in college scholarships, awards and 10 other incentives to high school students across the nation; and

11           Whereas, today the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States of America 12 is the nation’s oldest major veterans organization and continues to fulfill the 13 commitment adopted by its founders in 1899: “Honor the Dead By Helping the 14 Living”; and

15           Whereas, the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States of 16 America are individuals blessed with uncommon courage, integrity, valor and honor, 17 who made a personal commitment to our country; now, therefore, be it

18           Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the members of the 19 Wisconsin legislature salute the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States of 20 America for 100 years of service to our country, to the comrades of the veterans and 21 to their families, and to our communities; and, be it further

22           Resolved, That the assembly chief clerk shall transmit a copy of this joint 23 resolution to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Department of the great state of 24 Wisconsin.
