Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a dealer, distributor, manufacturer or transporter of certain vehicles who registers with the department of transportation may be issued registration plates, in lieu of regular registration plates, for use on vehicles that are owned or repossessed by a dealer, distributor, manufacturer or transporter and that are being offered for sale.

This bill permits these registration plates to be used on vehicles that are consigned to a dealer, distributor, manufacturer or transporter and that are being offered for sale on consignment.
