

2007 SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 101

March 10, 2008 - Introduced by Senators LEHMAN and WIRCH, cosponsored by Representatives KREUSER, MASON, TURNER, STEINBRINK, KERKMAN and VOS. Referred to Committee on Senate Organization.

1     Relating to: commending Chancellor John P. Keating on his commitment to 2             excellence in higher education.

3             Whereas, Chancellor John P. "Jack" Keating is ending a career of excellence in 4     higher education; and

5             Whereas, Chancellor Keating served as chancellor of the University of 6     Wisconsin-Parkside for ten successful years; and

7             Whereas, Chancellor Keating is a native of San Francisco and has spent more 8     than 36 years in public education, earned his Ph.D. in social psychology from Ohio 9     State University, and from there moved to join the psychology faculty at the 10    University of Washington; and

11            Whereas, at the University of Washington Chancellor Keating was appointed 12    founding dean and vice provost of two new University of Washington campuses and 13    also served as the first provost at the University of Alaska-Fairbanks; and 14            Whereas, Chancellor Keating achieved countless goals throughout his time at 15    UW-Parkside, including stabilizing and growing enrollment to 5,100 students from

1 55 Wisconsin counties making UW–Parkside the most diverse student body in the 2 UW System, establishing the Center for Community Partnerships, championing 3 student success initiatives, and establishing the Chancellor’s Task Force on 4 Environmental Stewardship; and

5 Whereas, during Chancellor Keating’s time, UW–Parkside was the only 6 university in Wisconsin and one of 64 universities nationwide to be designated an 7 “engaged campus” by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching; 8 and

9 Whereas, Chancellor Keating led the effort to establish numerous business 10 partnerships and served on many boards, including the National Advisory Board of 11 the Red Cross in Washington, D.C., for five years where he convened and chaired an 12 international meeting of high-rise evacuation experts in New York City to study 13 lessons learned from the World Trade Center tragedy; and 14 Whereas, over $100,000,000 in building programs, including the expansion of 15 the student union and communication arts building, were initiated by Chancellor 16 Keating, and his willingness to work tirelessly with state legislators to bring funding 17 to the campus and UW System was unparalleled; and

18 Whereas, Chancellor Keating made UW–Parkside an example of the essence 19 of higher education, and we take this opportunity to celebrate this exemplary leader 20 whose humble, mild-mannered approach never failed to persuade others to see his 21 light; now, therefore, be it

22 Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of the 23 Wisconsin legislature commend Chancellor Keating for his lifetime commitment to

1 higher education and dedication to making UW-Parkside an institution of higher 2 learning that is in his very accurate words, “excellent education for everyone.”
