

2011 ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION 122

March 5, 2012 – Introduced by Representatives KESSLER, TURNER, E. COGGS, FIELDS and TOLES, cosponsored by Senator TAYLOR. Referred to Committee on Assembly Organization.

1 To amend section 3 of article IV and section 9 of article XIII; and to create section
2 14 of article XIII of the constitution; relating to: excluding incarcerated,
3 disenfranchised felons from the enumeration of population for apportionment
4 and redistricting of legislative, county, and certain other district offices (first 5 consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposed constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2011 legislature on first consideration, excludes incarcerated felons who are disenfranchised by law from the census count used for redistricting legislative, county, and other districts used to select statutory elective officers.

A proposed constitutional amendment requires adoption by two successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it can become effective.

6 Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That:
7 SECTION 1. Section 3 of article IV of the constitution is amended to read:
8 [Article IV] Section 3. At its first session after each enumeration made by the 9 authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the

1 members of the senate and assembly, according to the number of inhabitants,
2 excluding incarcerated felons who are disenfranchised by law.

3 SECTION 2. Section 9 of article XIII of the constitution is amended to read:

4 [Article XIII] Section 9. All county officers whose election or appointment is not 5 provided for by this constitution shall be elected by the electors of the respective 6 counties, or appointed by the boards of supervisors, or other county authorities, as 7 the legislature shall direct. All city, town and village officers whose election or 8 appointment is not provided for by this constitution shall be elected by the electors 9 of such cities, towns and villages, or of some division thereof, or appointed by such 10 authorities thereof as the legislature shall designate for that purpose. All other 11 officers whose election or appointment is not provided for by this constitution, and 12 all officers whose offices may hereafter be created by law, shall be elected by the 13 people or appointed, as the legislature may direct. Any enumeration for the 14 apportionment and redistricting of districts for the election of county officers shall 15 exclude incarcerated felons who are disenfranchised by law.

16 SECTION 3. Section 14 of article XIII of the constitution is created to read:

17 [Article XIII] Section 14. Any enumeration for the apportionment and 18 redistricting of districts for the election of statutory officers of any municipality or 19 other unit of government in this state shall exclude incarcerated felons who are 20 disenfranchised by law.

21 SECTION 4. Numbering of new provisions. If another constitutional 22 amendment ratified by the people creates the number of any provision created in this 23 joint resolution, the chief of the legislative reference bureau shall determine the 24 sequencing and the numbering of the provisions whose numbers conflict.
