Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

2013 Wisconsin Act 20, the biennial budget act, requires the Group Insurance Board (GIB), beginning on January 1, 2015, to offer to state employees a health care coverage option that consists of a high-deductible health insurance plan and a health savings account. This bill eliminates this requirement and a requirement that the GIB must study the feasibility and cost-effectiveness of providing health reimbursement accounts instead of health savings accounts.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
