

2013 SENATE BILL 637

February 28, 2014 - Introduced by Senator KEDZIE, cosponsored by Representatives NASS, AUGUST, BIES and JACQUE. Referred to Committee on Judiciary and Labor.

1 AN ACT to repeal 939.24 (3); and to amend 939.42 (intro.), 939.42 (1) and 939.42
2 (2) of the statutes; relating to: eliminating voluntary intoxication as a defense
3 to criminal liability.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, if a person is intoxicated or drugged when he or she is alleged to have committed a crime, the intoxication or drugged condition is a defense to criminal liability if: 1) the person was involuntarily intoxicated or drugged at the time of the alleged offense and the person's condition rendered him or her incapable of distinguishing between right and wrong; or 2) the person's condition, whether voluntarily or involuntarily produced, made it impossible for him or her to have had the intent necessary to commit the crime. Voluntary intoxication, however, is generally not a defense in the second situation if the offense charged is based on the person's criminal recklessness. This bill eliminates the defense of voluntary intoxication.
