Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Subject to certain exceptions, current law prohibits a minor from being employed or permitted to work at any employment unless the minor's employer obtains a written permit authorizing the employment of the minor. Subject to certain exceptions, current law also prohibits a minor from being permitted to work at any "street trade" unless 1) the minor's employer obtains a street trade permit; and 2) the minor obtains an identification card. Street trade permits must contain certain information but otherwise be in the same format as child labor permits. Such permits are issued by the Department of Workforce Development or by certain other permit officers designated by DWD.

SENATE BILL 11

This bill eliminates the requirements to obtain such permits and identification cards for minors who are 16 years of age or older.

The bill also changes terminology in current law to refer to “the employment of minors” instead of “child labor” and repeals an obsolete provision regarding certain performances featuring children.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
