1 Relating to: recognizing June 28, 2021, as the 52nd anniversary of the Stonewall
2 Uprising.

3 Whereas, June 28, 2021, marks 52 years since the event known as the 4 Stonewall Uprising occurred, a pivotal event in the LGBTQ rights movement; and

5 Whereas, on June 28, 1969, the Stonewall Inn, a gay bar in Greenwich Village 6 in New York City, was raided by the New York City police; and

7 Whereas, during the 1960s, homosexuality was illegal in most states and gay 8 bars like the Stonewall Inn served as a safe space for the LGBTQ community; and

9 Whereas, the raid sparked outrage among the bar's patrons and members of the 10 community, who had grown tired of regular police raids of gay bars, resulting in six 11 days of protests and clashes between law enforcement and thousands of LGBTQ 12 individuals; and

13 Whereas, Marsha P. Johnson, a black trans woman and prominent trans 14 activist, and Stormé DeLarverie, are recognized as two of the main leaders of the 15 uprising; and
