

State of Wisconsin
2023 - 2024 LEGISLATURE

LRB-3042/1
SWB:all

2023 ASSEMBLY BILL 280

May 17, 2023 - Introduced by Representatives TUSLER, RETTINGER, BRANDTJEN, MURPHY, MURSAU, SNYDER and WICHGERS, cosponsored by Senators JACQUE and WIMBERGER. Referred to Committee on State Affairs.

1 AN ACT to create chapter 798 of the statutes; relating to: statutory recognition
2 of specialized treatment court and commercial court dockets.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill statutorily recognizes specialized dockets for treatment courts and for commercial cases. The bill recognizes in statute treatment courts, which are defined in the bill to include adult drug treatment court, juvenile drug treatment court, operating while intoxicated treatment court, mental health treatment court, family dependency treatment court, veterans treatment court, hybrid treatment court, and tribal healing to wellness court.

The bill also statutorily recognizes a specialized docket for commercial cases. Under the bill, the chief justice of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, taking into consideration recommendations from the relevant chief judges of the judicial administrative districts, must select circuit court judges who will be assigned to the commercial court docket upon each judge's agreement to serve. The bill provides that a judge who presides over cases on the commercial court docket is not prohibited from working on any other assigned docket.

Under the bill, certain commercial case types must be assigned to the commercial court docket, including cases involving any of the following: 1) the governance or internal affairs of business organizations; 2) tortious or statutorily prohibited business activity, unfair competition, or antitrust claims; 3) the sale, consolidation, or merger of a business organization or the conversion, share exchange, or sale of substantially all of the assets of a business organization; 4) the issuance, sale, or transfer of securities; 5) intellectual property rights; 6) the

ASSEMBLY BILL 280SECTION 1

1 specific training in the subject matter areas of a particular specialized docket and 2 then apply that training and expertise to the unique issues before the court. The use
3 of specialized dockets increases efficiencies and improve outcomes in the handling
4 of these cases.

5 (2) The commercial court docket has existed in this state for 5 years as a pilot 6 project in a number of counties and judicial districts and has been shown to reduce 7 substantially the time it takes to obtain a decision and increase the level of 8 satisfaction of the parties with the results in commercial disputes.

9 798.05 Treatment court dockets. (1) PURPOSE; AUTHORITY. The purpose of 10 this section is to statutorily recognize specialized dockets for treatment courts.
11 Treatment courts are designed to operate within the framework of the existing state
12 court system and specifically address underlying issues relating to criminal
13 behavior. Treatment courts provide treatment while working with a 14 multidisciplinary team to deploy a range of graduated rewards and sanctions with 15 the goal of engaging participants in treatment long enough to successfully address
16 any addiction or mental health issues and end the cycle of recidivism.

17 (2) DEFINITION. In this section, "treatment court" includes any of the following:

18 (a) Adult drug treatment court.

19 (b) Juvenile drug treatment court.

20 (c) Operating while intoxicated treatment court.

21 (d) Mental health treatment court.

22 (e) Family dependency treatment court.

23 (f) Veterans treatment court.

24 (g) Hybrid treatment court.

25 (h) Tribal healing to wellness court.

ASSEMBLY BILL 280SECTION 1

1 798.15 Commercial court docket. (1) PURPOSE; AUTHORITY. The purpose of 2 this section is to statutorily recognize a specialized docket for commercial cases in 3 state circuit courts. The commercial court docket is designed to operate within the 4 framework of the existing state court system with minimal impact on the balance of 5 court operations. It is intended to leverage judicial expertise in commercial law and 6 disputes with commercial litigants' desire to tailor case management practices best
7 suited for resolving substantial business disputes fairly and expeditiously.

8 (2) DEFINITIONS. In this section:

9 (a) "Business organization" includes a sole proprietorship, corporation,
10 partnership, limited liability company, limited partnership, professional 11 association, benefits corporation, service corporation, joint venture, bank, savings
12 bank, savings and loan association, or business trust. A "business organization"
13 excludes an individual, a family trust, or a political subdivision or governmental 14 entity.

15 (b) "Consumer contract or transaction" means a consumer contract or 16 transaction that is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

17 (3) SCOPE. (a) The commercial court procedures outlined in this section apply 18 to judicial administrative districts that have established specialized dockets for 19 commercial cases on the effective date of this paragraph [LRB inserts date], and 20 to any commercial court docket established after the effective date of this paragraph 21 [LRB inserts date], beginning on the date that docket is established. Courts with 22 specialized dockets for commercial cases shall be referred to as the commercial court.

23 (b) 1. The chief justice of the supreme court, after considering the 24 recommendation of the chief judge of the encompassing judicial administrative 25 district, shall select the circuit court judges in the judicial administrative districts

ASSEMBLY BILL 280

1 who will be assigned to the commercial court docket upon each judge's agreement to 2 so serve. The chief justice of the supreme court shall select at least all of the following
3 to participate in the commercial court under this section:

4 a. No fewer than 4 circuit court judges within the 2nd judicial administrative
5 district.

6 b. No fewer than 4 circuit court judges within the 3rd judicial administrative
7 district.

8 c. No fewer than 4 circuit court judges within the 5th judicial administrative
9 district.

10 d. No fewer than 4 circuit court judges within the 8th judicial administrative 11 district.

12 e. No fewer than 4 circuit court judges within the 10th judicial administrative
13 district.

14 f. No fewer than 4 circuit court judges within any judicial administrative 15 district that adds a commercial court docket.

16 2. A judge who presides in a commercial court docket is not prohibited from 17 working on any other assigned docket.

18 3. The chief justice of the supreme court may add additional judicial 19 administrative districts to the commercial court docket upon the recommendation of 20 the director of state courts.

21 (4) MANDATORY ASSIGNMENT OF CASES TO THE COMMERCIAL COURT DOCKET. (a) Any 22 case of a type described under par. (b) that is filed in a circuit court in which a 23 commercial court docket has been established shall be assigned to the commercial 24 court docket as provided under sub. (7).

ASSEMBLY BILL 280SECTION 1

1 (b) The commercial court shall have jurisdiction over any of the following types
2 of cases:

3 1. Cases involving the governance or internal affairs of business organizations,
4 including any of the following:

5 a. Claims between or among owners or constituents of a business organization.

6 b. Claims against officers, directors, or managers of a business organization.

7 c. Claims involving the indemnity of owners, officers, directors, or managers
8 of a business organization.

9 d. Claims involving the interpretation of the rights and obligations under the 10 law governing business organizations, such as chs. 178 to 181, 183, 185, 204, 214,
11 215, and 221 to 223, or any similar statute or law from another jurisdiction.

12 e. Claims involving the interpretation of the rights and obligations under any 13 agreement governing a business organization, such as the articles of incorporation,
14 bylaws, operating agreements, membership agreements, or partnership agreement
15 of the business organization.

16 2. Cases involving tortious or statutorily prohibited business activity, unfair
17 competition, or antitrust, including any of the following:

18 a. Claims under ch. 133.

19 b. Claims under s. 100.30 (5m) or (5r).

20 c. Claims under s. 134.01.

21 d. Claims of tortious interference with a business organization.

22 e. Claims involving restrictive covenants and agreements not to compete or 23 solicit.

24 f. Claims involving confidentiality agreements.

ASSEMBLY BILL 280

1 3. Cases involving the sale, consolidation, or merger of a business organization
2 or the conversion, share exchange, or sale of substantially all of the assets of a 3 business organization.

4 4. Cases involving the issuance, sale, or transfer of securities, including claims
5 for securities fraud under ch. 551, or any similar statute or law from another
6 jurisdiction.

7 5. Cases involving intellectual property rights, including any of the following:

8 a. Claims to determine the use, ownership, or status of trademarks, trade
9 secrets, or copyrights.

10 b. Claims under s. 134.90.

11 c. Claims involving any agreement relating to the licensing of any intellectual 12 property right, including patent rights.

13 6. Cases involving the relationship between a franchisor and franchisee or 14 similar distribution relationship, including any of the following:

15 a. Claims arising from ch. 135 or any similar statute or law from another
16 jurisdiction.

17 b. Claims arising from s. 134.93 or any similar statute or law from another
18 jurisdiction.

19 c. Claims arising from ch. 553 or any similar statute or law from another
20 jurisdiction.

21 7. Cases involving claims or disputes under ch. 402, 403, 404, 405, or 409, or 22 any similar statute or law from another jurisdiction, when the amount in controversy
23 exceeds $100,000, exclusive of interest, costs, and attorney fees.

24 8. Cases involving receiverships in excess of $250,000.

ASSEMBLY BILL 280SECTION 1

1 9. Cases involving confirmation of arbitration awards and compelling or 2 enforcing arbitration awards when the amount in controversy exceeds $100,000.

3 10. Cases involving commercial real estate construction disputes when the 4 amount in controversy exceeds $250,000.

5 (5) DISCRETIONARY ASSIGNMENT OF CASES TO THE COMMERCIAL COURT DOCKET. (a)
6 In addition to the cases identified under sub. (4) and that are not otherwise excluded
7 under sub. (6), parties to a case in a judicial administrative district in which there 8 is a commercial court docket may jointly move the chief judge of that judicial 9 administrative district for discretionary assignment of the case to that commercial 10 court docket. If the motion for discretionary assignment is granted, the case may be 11 assigned to a commercial court docket.

12 (b) In deciding a motion for discretionary assignment of a case to a commercial
13 court docket, the chief judge of the encompassing judicial administrative district 14 shall consider the parties to the dispute, the nature of the dispute, the complexity of 15 the issues presented, and whether the commercial court's resolution of the case will 16 provide needed guidance to influence future commercial behavior or assist in 17 resolving future disputes. The decision granting or denying a motion for a 18 discretionary assignment of a case to a commercial court docket is final and 19 nonappealable.

20 (6) INELIGIBLE CASE TYPES. The following cases may not be assigned to the 21 commercial court docket:

22 (a) Cases involving small claims under ch. 799.

23 (b) Cases involving a governmental entity or political subdivision seeking to 24 enforce a statutory or regulatory restriction or prohibition.

ASSEMBLY BILL 280SECTION 1

1 (c) Unless the claim or dispute identified in this subsection is ancillary and 2 incidental to a case assigned to the commercial court docket under sub. (4), cases 3 involving a consumer contract or transaction; disputes between landlords and 4 tenants; domestic relations claims; labor claims; receivership, insolvency, or 5 liquidation cases, except as provided in sub. (4) (b) 8.; malpractice claims; personal 6 injury claims; product liability claims; civil rights claims; tax disputes; cases seeking 7 to compel arbitration or to affirm or disaffirm an arbitration award, except as 8 provided in sub. (4) (b) 9.; construction claims, except as provided in sub. (4) (b) 10.; 9 or environmental claims.

10 (7) IDENTIFICATION AND ASSIGNMENT OF CASES TO COMMERCIAL COURT DOCKET. (a) 11 Plaintiff duties. At the time of the filing of the complaint under s. 801.02 (1), the 12 plaintiff in a civil action shall state on the face of the complaint whether the case 13 qualifies for the commercial court docket under sub. (4) and is not ineligible for 14 assignment under sub. (6).

15 (b) Clerk of court duties. 1. For cases filed in which a circuit court judge in that 16 county has already been assigned a commercial court docket, the clerk of court shall 17 assign the case to the commercial court docket and to one of the judges designated 18 for the commercial court docket. In the event of a request for judicial substitution, 19 the case shall be transferred to another circuit court judge who is assigned to the 20 commercial court docket in that judicial administrative district.

21 2. Within a judicial administrative district participating in the commercial 22 court docket, but in which no circuit court judge has been assigned to the commercial 23 court docket, upon the filing of a qualifying case, the clerk of court shall notify the 24 chief judge of the encompassing judicial administrative district who shall assign one 25 of the commercial court docket judges from the other counties in the judicial

ASSEMBLY BILL 280SECTION 1

1 administrative district. The chief judge's selection shall be made pursuant to s.
2 751.03 (3). In the event a request for substitution is filed regarding the judge chosen
3 by the chief judge of the encompassing judicial administrative district, the chief 4 judge shall then assign another judge from the judicial administrative district who 5 has been appointed for commercial court cases.

6 (c) Omission by plaintiff; defendant's and 3rd-party defendant's rights and 7 prerogatives of the circuit court. In the event the duties set forth in par. (a) are not
8 met, the circuit court may sua sponte, or upon a motion filed by a defendant or a 3rd 9 party with his or her or its responsive pleading or responsive motion, order the 10 transfer of a case to the commercial court docket if the court determines that the case 11 meets the mandatory criteria of sub. (4) and is not ineligible for assignment under 12 sub. (6).

13 (d) Action number assignment. On assignment of any matter to the commercial 14 court docket, the matter shall retain the civil action number assigned to it by the 15 clerk of court upon the filing of the complaint.

16 (8) DISPUTES REGARDING ASSIGNMENTS OF CASES TO THE COMMERCIAL COURT
17 DOCKET. (a) Contesting the assignment of a case to the commercial court docket. 1.
18 After assignment of a case to the commercial court docket, the judge assigned to the 19 case may sua sponte, or upon motion of any party, reconsider whether assignment
20 of that case to the commercial court docket is appropriate under the requirements
21 of sub. (4) and is not ineligible for assignment under sub. (6). Any party filing a 22 reconsideration motion under this paragraph shall file the motion no later than the 23 earlier of the following:

24 a. Before any judicial ruling is rendered on any issue of material substance in 25 the case.

ASSEMBLY BILL 280

1 b. Twenty days after the case is assigned to the commercial court docket.

2 2. If the assigned commercial court judge concludes that the case does not
3 qualify for assignment to the commercial court docket, the judge shall return the case
4 to the general civil case docket.

5 (b) Review. Any party aggrieved by the outcome of a motion for reconsideration 6 under par. (a) may request the chief judge of the judicial administrative district in 7 which the commercial court sits to review the reconsideration decision. A decision 8 by the chief judge of the judicial administrative district resolving the question of 9 which docket shall be assigned the case is final and nonappealable.

10 (9) TRANSFERRING A CASE TO A COMMERCIAL COURT DOCKET. (a) Parties from 11 judicial administrative districts that do not have a dedicated commercial court
12 docket may petition to have their cases administered within a commercial court 13 docket. To facilitate consideration of such petitions, the director of state courts shall 14 periodically designate a district court administrator to be the court administrative 15 officer for the commercial court docket and shall also designate a circuit court judge
16 serving as a commercial court judge at the time of designation to be the supervising 17 commercial court judge.

18 (b) Parties described under par. (a) may jointly petition for transfer of a case
19 to a commercial court docket if all of the following are true:

20 1. The case is a type identified in sub. (4) and is not ineligible for assignment
21 to a commercial court docket under sub. (6).

22 2. The parties agree to use the forms and procedures developed for use in the 23 commercial court docket.

ASSEMBLY BILL 280SECTION 1

1 3. The parties agree that all proceedings will be conducted in the courtroom of 2 the judge to which the case is assigned under par. (c), except that if the case proceeds
3 to trial, the trial will be conducted in the county where the case was originally filed.

4 (c) The procedure for a joint petition for transfer shall be as follows:

5 1. When parties petition for the transfer of a commercial court case from a 6 district that does not then have a commercial court docket, they shall file that 7 petition with the clerk of court in the county where the case is originally filed and also 8 file a copy of that petition with the court administrative officer designated by the 9 director of state courts. The supervising commercial court judge shall determine 10 where the case should be transferred based upon workload and the reasonable 11 convenience of the parties and shall confer with the chief judge of that judicial 12 administrative district as to which commercial court judge is best able to accept that 13 additional workload assignment. The parties requesting the assignment to the 14 commercial court docket shall agree that the judge assigned to the case may direct 15 that all matters, other than trial, be held either in the assigned judge's home
16 courtroom or by electronic means. Trials shall be held in the county in which the case
17 was originally filed. The clerk of the circuit court of the county where the case was 18 originally filed shall continue to be responsible to accept filings, clerk on the record
19 proceedings, and perform all other duties applicable to that case. Any judgments 20 rendered as a result of such proceedings shall be docketed in the county in which the 21 matter was originally filed and any appeal shall be made to the court of appeals in 22 the appellate district where the case was originally filed.

23 2. The supervising commercial court docket judge shall consider the caseload 24 of the judges designated for the commercial court docket, the nature of the case for 25 which the petition was submitted, and the work requirements for cases already

ASSEMBLY BILL 280

1 pending in the commercial court docket when determining whether to allow the 2 transfer of a case under this paragraph.

3 3. The supervising commercial court docket judge shall, upon allowing a 4 transfer, assign the case to the commercial court docket and to one of the judges 5 designated for the commercial court docket in a participating judicial administrative
6 district.

7 4. In the event of a request for judicial substitution in a case transferred under 8 this subsection and assigned to the commercial court docket, the chief judge of the 9 judicial administrative district in which the assignment is made shall then assign 10 another judge from the judicial administrative district who has been appointed for 11 commercial court cases.

12 (d) No party may withdraw a request for transfer to the commercial court
13 docket after a judicial assignment has been made under par. (c).

14 (END)