

estate mentioned or described in the return of the officer in such county, until the same shall be discharged. And when said lien shall be discharged by the order of said court, or by satisfaction of the judgment rendered in the suit, it shall be the duty of the said register, when requested, to record the satisfaction piece or transcript of the record of such order, in the book of mortgages, and to enter on the margin of the page or pages where the said writ and return are so recorded, a minute of such discharge or satisfaction.

Duty of register.

§ 9. The first and second sections of the act of which this act is amendatory are hereby repealed.

Sections repealed.

APPROVED, February 15, 1843.

AN ACT to provide for preserving in the Library the Acts and Journals of the Legislative Assembly.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

§ 1. That the librarian be and he is hereby required to procure to be bound and lettered, twenty copies of the acts and journals of each session of the Legislative Assembly since the organization of the Territory; and also a like number of the acts and journals of the present and each succeeding session of the Legislative Assembly, and to preserve the same in the Territorial library.

Acts and Journals—20 copies.

Of present session.

§ 2. That the librarian be further instructed to transmit to the executive of each of the states and territories of the United States, a copy of the pamphlet laws of the past sessions, after reserving fifty copies of each for the use of the Territory, and annually a copy of the laws that may hereafter be passed by the Legislative Assembly of this Territory.

Librarian to transmit copies to each state.

APPROVED, February 15, 1843.