AN ACT

Relating to the Library and Capitol of Wisconsin.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of said superintendent of territorial property to procure, to be bound and lettered, in a single volume, all such pamphlet laws of this territory, as may be in the library, to the number of twenty-five copies, which volumes, when so bound, are to be kept for the express use of the territory. Duty of superintendent.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the superintendent, to procure, to be bound and lettered, such other books as in his judgment ought to be preserved in the library. Do.

SEC. 3. The superintendent of territorial property shall procure a case fitted into proper compartments for the preservation of the records and papers deposited by law in the library, and the sum of fifty dollars is hereby appropriated out of the treasury of the territory, to be expended under the direction of the superintendent, for this object. Do.

Well to be bug.

SEC. 4. Said superintendent, shall, at such point as shall be deemed most convenient, cause a well to be sunk and substantially stoned, and supplied with a bucket and proper apparatus for drawing water for the use of the capitol; and the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, is hereby appropriated out of the treasury of the territory to be expended under the direction of said superintendent for this object.

Basement of capitol to be cleared.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of said superintendent, to cause the basement of the capitol to be enclosed with doors and windows, and otherwise to finish off the same as a wood cellar, for the capitol, and he shall cause all the wood in the capitol yard, belonging to the territory, to be fitted for the fires, and deposited therein: and the sum of three hundred dollars is hereby appropriated out of the treasury of the territory to be expended under the direction of the said superintendent for this object.

Further sum appropriated.

SEC. 6. The further sum of two hundred dollars is hereby appropriated out of the territorial treasury, to be expended under the direction of said superintendent, as a contingent fund, to repair and preserve the capitol and furniture, and fit the same, for the use of the legislative assembly.

WILLIAM SHEW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MASON C. DARLING,

President of the Council.
