

street, between Clinton and Barclay streets, in such amounts as may be just and equitable in the judgment of the said street commissioners; such tax to be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other city taxes are collected.

SECTION 3. If in the opinion of the said street commissioners it should seem unjust to charge the whole expense of said sewer to the lots aforesaid, it shall be lawful for them to say what proportion of the cost of the same shall be paid by the fifth ward.

Ward may not pay whole expense.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1863.

CHAPTER 292.

[Published April 11, 1863.]

AN ACT to amend section 21 of chapter 22 of the general laws of 1859, entitled "an act relative to the sale of lands for unpaid taxes, and the conveyance and redemption thereof."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twenty-one of chapter twenty-two of the general laws of 1859, as amended by section three of chapter fifty-six of the general laws of 1860, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "Section 21. Upon the redemption of any lands sold for taxes, by payment to the clerk of the board of supervisors, such clerk shall execute to the person so redeeming a receipt, specifying therein the name of the purchaser, the land redeemed, and the amount of the redemption money paid on each parcel, separately, and also, in distinct items, the whole amount of penalties and advertising fees on the parcels embraced therein, and his fees for said receipt; and such clerk shall also enter on the sale list kept by him, the name of the person redeeming, the sum paid therefor by him, (exclusive of fees, as aforesaid,) and the time when paid, which receipt, before it shall be evidence of such redemption, shall be presented to the treasurer of the same county,

Certificate of redemption.

Duty of clerk and treasurer.

Certificates to include taxes of one year only—descriptions to be contained in each.

and countersigned by him; and said treasurer shall also make a similar entry in the sale list kept by him, with that above required to be made by such clerk, and before said receipt shall be delivered to the person so redeeming: provided, however, that the clerk of the county board shall not be required to include in the same receipt of redemption lands sold in different years, nor more than six distinct descriptions of lands sold in the same year, except in case of redemption of city or village lots, in which case he may be required to insert such number of lots or parcels sold in the same year, not exceeding twenty, as the person redeeming may require."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1863.

CHAPTER 293.

[Published April 11, 1863.]

AN ACT to provide for a final settlement of all claims of Carpenter and Hyer, assignees of James Ross, against the state of Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation in full satisfaction of claims of Carpenter & Hyer.

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated [appropriated] to Carpenter and Hyer, assignees of James Ross, out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, [appropriated,] the sum of five thousand dollars, in full for all claims of whatever kind growing out of the contract for public printing with James Ross, for the years 1859 and 1860, and also in full for all claims for court fees and costs mentioned in the stipulations of Carpenter and Hyer and James Ross, with the secretary of state, made in 1860, and also in full for all claims for damages claimed or to be claimed on account of the rejection of any bid or bids for the public printing, rejected by the printing commissioners in 1858, and in full for all claims of every kind, name or nature, actual or imaginable, legal, equitable or oth-
