

incorporate the city of Kenosha, and the several acts amendatory thereto," approved March 2d, 1857, is hereby amended, by adding after the word "highways," where the same first occurs in said section, the words "streets, alleys;" also, by inserting the same words in the singular number where they subsequently occur in the reading of said section, after the word "highway."

When council may order opening, &c. of streets

SECTION 2. Section nine of said chapter seven is also further amended, by adding thereto the words, "but upon satisfactory proof of such tender or deposit having been made, the common council shall, except in case of the appeal provided for in sections eleven and twelve of said chapter, make such order for the immediate opening, altering, widening, improving, straightening or vacating such highways, streets, alleys or public grounds, as may seem expedient."

SECTION 2 [3.] This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 6, 1865.

CHAPTER 308.

[Published May 20, 1865.]

AN ACT to repeal chapter 994 of the private and local laws of 1856, entitled "an act to vacate a portion of Hinckley's subdivision of section No. 31, in township No. 19 north, of range No. 24 east, in Manitowoc county."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Chapter four hundred and ninety-four of the private and local laws of the year 1856, entitled "an act to vacate a portion of Hinckley's subdivision of section No. thirty-one (31,) in township No. nineteen (19) north, of range twenty-four (24) east, in Manitowoc county," is hereby repealed; and all that portion of said Hinckley's subdivision, and the recorded plat thereof, and the lots and streets laid down thereon, which were vacated by the said act, are hereby revived, restored and re-established, and made to stand and be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the said act vacating the same had never been passed.

Revived.

Approved April 6, 1865.

CHAPTER 309.

[Published May 19, 1865.]

AN ACT to amend and define the boundary line between the towns of Seneca and St. Marie, in the county of Green Lake.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The boundary line between the towns of Seneca and St. Marie, in the county of Green Lake, so far as the same is now formed by White river, in township seventeen north, of range twelve east, is hereby altered and amended, so as that the following shall hereafter be the line between said towns, to wit: Commencing at the quarter post in the west line of section nineteen, and running thence east to the quarter post between sections nineteen and twenty, thence south to the southwest corner of section twenty, thence east to the quarter post between sections twenty and twenty-nine, thence south to the center of section twenty-nine, thence east to the quarter post between sections twenty-seven and twenty-eight, thence south to Fox river, where it intersects the west line of section thirty-four; thence down said Fox river to the mouth of White river; and all the land in the aforesaid sections which lies north and east of said described line, shall be in and belong to the town of Seneca, and all the land in the aforesaid sections which lies south and west of said described line, shall be in and belong to the town of St. Marie.

Boundary defined.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 6, 1865.