

CHAPTER 74.

[Published March 6, 1869.]

AN ACT to establish lumber district number 8, in the state of Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Red Cedar river to constitute district No. 8.

SECTION 1. For the purpose of inspecting and regulating the survey and measurement of logs, timber and lumber in this state, the Red Cedar river and its tributaries, within the county of Dallas are hereby constituted and created a lumber district, to be known and called lumber district number eight.

To be subject to provisions of chapter 167, laws of 1864.

SECTION 2. Said lumber district number eight shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 167 of the general laws of 1864, entitled "an act to establish lumber district in this state and to regulate the traffic in logs, timber and lumber in said district the same as the district therein named."

Where inspector to keep his office.

SECTION 3. The inspector of said lumber district number eight shall keep his office at Barron, in the county of Dallas.

SECTION 4. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1869.