CHAPTER 60.

[Published March 19, 1872.]

AN ACT to appropriate to the governor of the state of Wisconsin, the sum of six hundred and eighty-one dollars and ninety cents, for the purpose therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, By chapter 159 of the general laws of the year 1871, a certain sum of money was appropriated to be used at the discretion of the governor in perfecting the title in the purchasers from the state of Wisconsin therein named, to certain lands therein described, which said sum of money so appropriated has been found insufficient to pay the necessary cost and expenses actually incurred in perfecting said title; therefore,

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated to the governor of the state of Wisconsin, the sum of six hundred and eighty-one dollars and ninety cents, out of any money in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, to be used at his discretion, in full settlement of all cost paid or expenses incurred by Jacob Lanyten, Michael Goff, Nicholas Reich and Nicholas Hemman, or either of them, in perfecting the title, or for any and all damages sustained on account of any imperfection in said title to the lands enumerated in said chapter 159 of the general laws for the year 1871, the amount hereby appropriated to be received by said parties in full payment and satisfaction of all claims or demands of every name or nature arising, growing out of or in any manner connected with the title to said land, or any question connected therewith in which the state of Wisconsin may have any interest, or may have incurred or may be supposed to have incurred any liability.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 15, 1872.

CHAPTER 61.

[Published April 4, 1872.]

AN ACT to regulate the giving of bonds by executors, trustees and testamentary guardians in certain cases, and amendatory of section three of chapter ninety-eight of the revised statutes, entitled "of letters testamentary and other proceedings on the probate of a will."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

Shall be exempt.

SECTION 1. Section three of chapter ninety-eight of the revised statutes is amended by adding thereto the following: An executor or trustee or testamentary guardian named in such will shall be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on his bond, when the testator has ordered or requested such exemption, or that no bond should be taken: provided, that the county judge may, at or after the granting of letters testamentary, or of guardianship, require a bond with sufficient surety or sureties, if he is of opinion that the same is required by a change in the situation of the executor or trustee or testamentary guardian, or for other sufficient reason.

Approved March 15, 1872.
