CHAPTER 226.

AN ACT to amend chapter 190, of the laws of 1879, entitled "an act relating to the division of towns," and amendatory of section 671 of the revised statutes of 1878, relating to the division of towns.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 190 of the general laws of 1879, is hereby amended by striking out the word "each" in the next to the last line of said section, and insert in lieu thereof the words "in one or both such," so that when so amended said section shall read as follows: Section 1. Section 671 of the revised statutes of 1878 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 671. When thirty or more freeholders residents of any town, and at least one-third of the legal voters thereof shall petition the county board for a division of such town, such petitioners shall, at Division of towns.

least twenty days before the next annual town meeting, file a copy of such petition with the clerk of such town, who shall, at least ten days before such town meeting, give notice that the question of the division of such town will be voted upon at such town meeting, by posting notices thereof showing the manner in which it is proposed to divide such town, in four public places in each proposed subdivision thereof. The vote shall be by ballot, and those voting in favor of the division shall vote a ballot containing the words "for division," and those voting against the division a ballot containing the words "against division." The voters residing in each of the proposed subdivisions shall vote separately, and if a majority of the votes cast in either subdivision shall be in favor of division, the town clerk shall certify the fact to the county clerk, and thereupon the county board shall have power to divide such town accordingly. But no town shall be divided so as to constitute or leave any town of less than thirty-six sections according to United States survey, unless each such town, after division, shall have real estate valued at the last preceding assessment at thirty thousand dollars or more, and twenty-five qualified voters, resident therein at the time of division; and no town shall be divided or have any part detached therefrom, so as to make its area less than thirty-six sections, as aforesaid except when a majority of the votes cast "in one or both such" subdivisions as aforesaid, shall be in favor of such division.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1882.
