CHAPTER 128.

AN ACT to establish a law uniform with the laws of other states relative to the probate in this state of foreign wills.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Exemplified copy of will
may be admitted to probate.

SECTION 1. That any will duly admitted to probate without this state, and in the place of the testator's domicile, may be duly admitted to probate and recorded in this state by duly filing an exemplified copy of said will and of the record admitting the same to probate; and such will shall then have the same force and effect as if originally proved and allowed in this state.

SECTION 2. All laws or parts of laws contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 3, 1895.
