CHAPTER 3.

AN ACT to amend section 1 of chapter 4, laws of 1911, providing for the nomination of judicial officers in the counties having a population of over one hundred thousand inhabitants by a nonpartisan primary election.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 4, laws of 1911, is amended to read: (Chapter 4, laws of 1911). Section 1. In all counties having a population of over one hundred thousand inhabitants all judicial officers, except police justices and justices of the peace, shall be nominated at a primary election, which shall be held two weeks prior to the first Tuesday in April in each year in which any of said judicial officers are required to be elected. Except where inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and except that the provisions for second choice voting shall not be applicable to the nomination of judicial officers in the counties having a population of over one hundred thousand inhabitants at nonpartisan primary elections, the law relating to the nomination of candidates at city primary elections shall apply to and govern said primary election.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved February 9, 1915.
