CHAPTER 97.

AN ACT to amend section 1299h—1 of the statutes, relating to railway crossings upon town and village highways.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1299h—1 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1299h—1. 1. Whenever any highway in any town or incorporated village, without the limits of any incorporated city, shall extend upon, over or across the tracks or right of way of any railway company, such railway company shall, at its own expense, construct, grade and maintain in safe condition for public travel, the portion of such highway or crossing extending upon, over or across the tracks or right of way of such railway company. Whenever any such town or village shall permanently improve, pave or macadamize such highway extending upon, over or across the tracks or right of way of any such railway company, such railway company shall, at its own expense, improve, pave or macadamize such portion of such highway as shall extend upon, over or across the tracks or right of way of such railway company, in substantially the same manner and of substantially the same materials as such town shall have used.
