CHAPTER 88

AN ACT to amend section 3873b of the statutes, relating to application to determine descent of lands.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3873b of the statutes is amended to read: Section 3873b. When any person shall die intestate, seized of an estate of inheritance in any lands in this state and leaving no personal property in this state which would be proper assets in the hands of an administrator for the payment of debts after six months from the death of such decedent, and in any case in which administration shall not have been granted in this state after three years from the death of such decedent, the widow of such decedent or any heir or grantee of any heir of such decedent entitled to any interest in such lands may apply to the county court of the county in which such decedent was last resident, or if such decedent was not an inhabitant of this state, to the county court of any county in which such lands or some part thereof are situated, to determine the descent of such lands. Such application shall be by a verified petition which shall show, as particularly as known or can be with due diligence ascertained, the time and place of death and last place of residence of such decedent, and the other facts which authorize the proceeding according to the provisions of the last preceding section; the names, residences and relationship to the decedent of all the heirs and their grantees entitled to any interest in said lands, stating who, if any, are minors or under legal disabilities, and the names and residences of their guardians, if any in this state, and a description of all such lands.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 13, 1917.
