CHAPTER 214.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money therein named to reimburse Elmer S. Hall and John S. Donald for legal expenses in the case of state of Wisconsin vs. Gottlieb Krause and others.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is appropriated from any moneys in the general fund, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two hundred dollars to Elmer S. Hall and the sum of two hundred dollars to John S. Donald to reimburse them for moneys paid to Olbrich, Brown and Siebecker, attorneys, of Madison, Wisconsin, for legal services rendered in their behalf in the case of state of Wisconsin vs. Gottlieb Krause and others, in which case the said Elmer S. Hall and John S. Donald were each interpleaded as a defendant while holding the office of secretary of state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 28, 1925.
