

[Jt. Res. No. 6, S.]

No. 7, 1925.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Ratifying an amendment to the constitution of the United States relating to child labor.

WHEREAS, Both houses of the sixty-eighth congress of the United States of America, at its first session, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, made the following proposition to amend the constitution of the United States of America in the following words, to wit:

JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution:

“Article.....

“Section 1. The Congress shall have power to limit, regulate, and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age.

“Sec. 2. The power of the several States is unimpaired by this article except that the operation of State laws shall be suspended to the extent necessary to give effect to legislation enacted by the Congress.”

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the said proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States of America be, and the same hereby is, ratified by the legislature of the state of Wisconsin. And be it further

Resolved, That copies of this joint resolution, certified by the secretary of state, be forwarded by the governor to the secretary of state at Washington, and to the presiding officer of each house of the congress of the United States.
