CHAPTER 62.

AN ACT to amend section 3 of chapter 218, laws of 1899, as amended by section 1 of chapter 485 of the laws of 1913, relating to the election of the judge of the district court of Milwaukee county:

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of chapter 218, laws of 1899, as amended by section 1 of chapter 485 of the laws of 1913, is amended to read: (Chapter 218, laws of 1899) Section 3. On the first Tuesday of April, 1901, and on the same day of the same month each six years thereafter, the qualified electors of said county of Milwaukee shall elect, in the same manner as is provided for the election of county officers for said county, a suitable person to the office of judge of said district court, to be called "district judge", who shall be a resident of said county and an attorney-at-law admitted to practice in the circuit court of Milwaukee county, and who shall not during his said term as judge engage in the practice of law in any court of record in said county. Such district judge shall hold his office for the term of six years, from the first Monday of * * * January next succeeding his election, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, and who may be removed from office for cause in the manner provided by law for the removal of justices of the peace. The resignation of the district judge shall be made to the governor of the state. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of such judge, from any cause whatever, the governor shall appoint a district judge and the person so appointed shall hold for the residue of the term.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 63.

AN ACT to amend section 245.14 of the statutes, relating to application for marriage license.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 245.14 of the statutes is amended to read: 245.14 Application for a marriage license shall be made at least five days before a license shall be issued; provided, that, upon application of either of the parties to a proposed marriage, any judge of a court of record, or a judge of municipal court, may, upon satisfactory evidence being presented to him that either of the parties to the proposed marriage is dangerously ill, such illness being likely to result in death, or that the female is pregnant with child, or upon the request of the parent or parents or guardian, if any, of the female, by order authorize the license to be issued at any time before the expiration of said five days. The person applying for such order or dispensation shall have been a resident of the state for at least thirty days prior to making such application. Such order shall be delivered to the person issuing the license and by him retained as prima facie evidence of his authority to so issue the marriage license. The judge or court making such order shall not receive any compensation therefor from the county, but may charge the person applying for such order a sum not to exceed two dollars, which sum shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the county.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
