CHAPTER 63.

AN ACT to amend section 245.14 of the statutes, relating to application for marriage license.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 245.14 of the statutes is amended to read: 245.14 Application for a marriage license shall be made at least five days before a license shall be issued; provided, that, upon application of either of the parties to a proposed marriage, any judge of a court of record, or a judge of municipal court, may, upon satisfactory evidence being presented to him that either of the parties to the proposed marriage is dangerously ill, such illness being likely to result in death, or that the female is pregnant with child, or upon the request of the parent or parents or guardian, if any, of the female, by order authorize the license to be issued at any time before the expiration of said five days. The person applying for such order or dispensation shall have been a resident of the state for at least thirty days prior to making such application. Such order shall be delivered to the person issuing the license and by him retained as prima facie evidence of his authority to so issue the marriage license. The judge or court making such order shall not receive any compensation therefor from the county, but may charge the person applying for such order a sum not to exceed two dollars, which sum shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the county.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 6, 1933.
