CHAPTER 369.

AN ACT to amend 147.01 (2) and 152.04 of the statutes, relating to the basic science law and the practice of dentistry.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 147.01 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

147.01 (2) Sections 147.01 to 147.12, inclusive, shall not apply to or affect persons making application for examination * * * to hold a certificate, * * * under chapter 152, * * * as a dental hygienist nor shall the above sections apply to optometrists; provided further, that the exemption contained in this subsection shall likewise apply to all those who, prior to July 1, 1952, file an application for a license to practice dentistry under the provisions of chapter 152.

SECTION 2. 152.04 of the statutes is amended to read:

152.04 An applicant who has complied with section 152.03, and who, in the case of one applying for a license after July 1, 1952, holds a certificate of registration in the basic sciences, as provided in chapter 147, shall be examined in writing in such of those subjects usually taught in reputable dental colleges as the board deems necessary. In addition, an applicant shall submit to such practical examination in operative and mechanical dentistry as may be prescribed by the board.

Approved June 11, 1951.
