COMMUNICATION

Marquette University

October 31, 1967.

The Honorable Harold Froehlich
State Capitol Building
Assembly Chambers
Madison, Wisconsin 53702

Dear Assemblyman Froehlich: Last week it was my pleasure to accept a check payable to Marquette University—The James E. Held Memorial Fund. The check was given to me by Jim's close friend, Attorney Charles Mulcahy, who explained that Jim's friends and colleagues, both in the Senate and the Assembly, had decided that it was this way in which they chose to pay their respect to Jim.

I want you to know how grateful we are, and how much I would appreciate it if you would tell your colleagues of my gratitude. Jim was certainly a fine young man, one whom we were proud to have as a Marquette alumnus. The funds given to use in his memory will be used in our academic program. It is our hope that they will play their part in producing other young men and women who will carry on those ideals of which Jim was so fond.

Thanks again to you and your colleagues for your part in establishing The James E. Held Memorial Fund.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN P. RAYNOR, S. J.
President.
