MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature
Know you by these presents:

Whereas, Francis F. Awe, 51, the totally blind state commander of the Disabled American Veterans, died at his home in Milwaukee on October 27, 1971; and

Whereas, Mr. Awe, who lost his vision as a result of military service in World War II, had earned both bachelors and masters degrees from Marquette University. He taught in Milwaukee schools from 1947 to 1951, then served the state as a rehabilitation counselor for the blind, aiding hosts of blind people by his inspiring example to live productive lives; and

Whereas, Mr. Awe was elected DAV Department Commander in June, 1971 for a year's term which was cut short by his untimely death; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Senator Schuele, under Joint Rule 26, extend their sincere condolences to his wife, Jean and his children, James and Larry, on the occasion of his passing.

Read and adopted.
