From: State of New Jersey
Senate and General Assembly

Senate No. 1271

An act to provide for the application by the State of New Jersey to the Congress of the United States for the calling of a convention for proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The State of New Jersey hereby applies to the Congress of the United States of America under Article V of the United States Constitution to call a convention for proposing an amendment to the United States Constitution to do the following:

a. With respect to the right to life guaranteed in the United States Constitution, provide that every human being subject to the jurisdiction of the United States or any state shall be deemed from the moment of fertilization to be a person and entitled to the right to life.

b. Provide that Congress and the several states shall have concurrent powers to enforce such an amendment by appropriate legislation.

The purpose of the Constitutional Convention shall be to only consider the above and no other business.

2. Copies of this act shall be sent to the legislatures of all the states, to the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives and to the Secretary of the Senate in Washington, D.C., requesting the several states to also pass an identical application to the United States Congress so as to meet the Constitutional requirements for application for such a convention by two-thirds of the states.

3. This act shall take effect immediately.
