COMMUNICATIONS

September 6, 1977

Dear Speaker Jackamonis:

Effective today I am resigning from the assembly committee on Internal Management for two reasons.

1). The meetings and executive sessions are scheduled concurrently to the meetings and executive sessions of the Judiciary Committee of which I am also a member.

2). More importantly, when I am attending the committee hearings and executive sessions, my office is physically closed and so is my constituent contact since I currently have no staff at my disposal. Given the total incapability of both the sergeant's office and the clerk's office to provide assistance and the unlikelihood that the situation will be remedied in the foreseeable future I have no alternative but resignation.

Sincerely
PHILLIP TUCZYNSKI

Embassy of the
United States of America

August 30, 1977

Dear Friends,

It touched me to return to Mexico yesterday and find the Swedish ivy plant you had sent with your condolences.

Thank you for your kindly remembrance.

Sincerely yours,
PATRICK J. LUCEY
