Edward Jackamonis
Speaker of the Assembly
211 West - State Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin 53702

Dear Ed,

I wish to extend a heartfelt thanks to you and the other members of the legislature for the very beautiful bouquet of dried natural flowers sent in memory of my mother. It was a very graceful adjunct to the sort of memorial service she would have liked and a most fitting expression of her way of life.

My mother was a very special person in many ways. Throughout her life she involved herself in public issues that were of interest to her with a passion and intensity, and energy that confounded those of us closest to her. She always tried to understand to the best of her ability all sides of an issue and was not afraid to speak out in a quiet, but thoughtful and forceful way. She admired and actively supported people she judged to be able who entered public life, regardless of their political preference. She was an involved person in the truest sense of the word.

The position as DNR board member was of great satisfaction to her, and was a job she devoted all of her characteristic energy to. I think it was a fitting culmination to a very active life and it is comforting to those of us who miss her to know that her death occurred while doing what she loved best, and in the manner most acceptable to any one of us.

Sincerely yours,
MIKE McCORMICK
