Senate Bill 528

Relating to various regulations affecting loans made by certain licensees and oral requests for information under the uniform commercial code.

The speaker made the following ruling:

SPEAKER'S RULING

On February 15, 1978 the Representative of the 13th Assembly District, Representative Kirby, raised the point of order that Assembly amendment 1 to 1977 Senate Bill 528, offered by the Representative from the 9th Assembly District, was not germane under Assembly Rule 50 (3) (e). The chair took the point of order under advisement.

During the debate preceding the point of order, the Representative from the 9th district requested that consideration of the bill be delayed until an engrossed text of the bill incorporating senate amendment 2 was printed. In the time since the point of order was raised, an engrossed text has been printed and distributed, and the amendment offered by the Representative from the 9th district has been rewritten by the Legislative Reference Bureau to apply to the engrossed text. Both of these documents should now be in the members' folders.

The difference between the text of assembly amendment 1 as originally offered and as it presently reads now that an engrossed text of the bill is available is helpful in understanding why the point of order was raised. When assembly amendment 1 was initially offered it read: "On page 5, line 15, insert the material deleted by senate amendment 2." In its present form the amendment refers to the printed engrossed bill and now reads: "On page 5, line 14, delete 'applies' and substitute 'and chs. 421 to 427 apply'."

In its original form then, it appears at first blush that Assembly Amendment 1 might be in violation of Assembly Rule 50 (3) (e) which provides that an amendment is not germane if it "negates the effect of another amendment previously adopted." In its revised form, however, although it would have precisely the same substantive effect, no such violation is suggested.

Regardless of the original form of this amendment, however, Assembly Rule 50 is a rule of this house and, insofar as it refers to actions on amendments, is intended to apply only to actions taken by this house. Accordingly, the prohibition contained in Rule 50 (3) (e) applies only to an amendment to a proposal before the Assembly which would negate the effect of an amendment to that proposal which was previously adopted by the Assembly. Since Assembly Amendment 1 to Senate Bill 528 does not negate the effect of any previously adopted Assembly Amendment to this bill, the point of order raised by the Representative from the 13th District is ruled not well taken.

Summary: Assembly Rule 50 (3) (e) prohibiting amendments which negate the effect of an amendment previously adopted applies only to amendments previously adopted by the Assembly.
