STATE OF WISCONSIN
Assembly Journal
Eighty-Sixth Regular Session

MONDAY, January 3, 1983.

2:00 P.M.

The assembly was called to order by the chief clerk of the 1981 session, Mr. David Kedrowski.

The prayer was offered by Reverend John E. Midtling of Bonnet Prairie Lutheran Church in Rio.

"Our Kind and Gracious Heavenly Father, who by Thy Providence led our Forefathers to this great land in which they found refuge from oppression and freedom to Worship Thee; we beseech Thee ever to guide our Nation in the way of Thy truth and peace, so that we may never fail in the blessing which You have promised to those whose God is the Lord. You have given to us, O God, a land wherein we are free to read and hear Your Word, to confess Your Name, and to labor together for the extension of Your Kingdom. Grant, we beseech You, that the freedom which has been vouchsafed to us may be continued to our children and our children's children, and the power of Your Word may abound to Your Eternal Glory.

We implore Thee, O Father, graciously regard the President of the United States, Ronald Reagan, his counselors, aides, and all others in authority over us, that, guided by Your Holy Spirit, they may be high in purpose, wise in counsel, and unwavering in duty.

Bless, we pray Thee, those who are leaving office this day, our Governor, Lee Dreyfus, and other elected officials, as they continue living their lives day by day in other pursuits. We humbly entreat Thee, O God, to be with those being sworn into office and seated this day, our new Governor, Anthony Earl, other elected officials, and the newly elected Speaker of the Assembly, Tom Loftus, and all members of the State Legislature. We pray Your guidance upon them in the many decisions that must be made. Help us to rely on Your Almighty Wisdom. You have given to us as a people this great land, stored with treasures, and around it You have cast like a mantle, the sea. We thank You for Your protecting Hand upon us. Forgive us where we have done wrong, and guide us in the path of righteousness.

We pray for all the members of the Legislature as they labor together in their various committees, and as a collective body. Grant that we may always be able to disagree, without being disagreeable. Help us to be able to stand up under the strains and tensions of problems and decisions, in meetings and conferences and endless demands made upon one's time. May we always have time to turn to You, O Lord. Help us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. Help these representatives of our great State of Wisconsin to work in an atmosphere of team spirit. Give them the ability to be honest and frank in all things, and to be able to differ on issues without being difficult.

As this Nation was brought into being under God, and the freedom we enjoy is from Him, help us to acknowledge that we too are under God. We have acknowledged that, as a Nation, it is in God we trust. Grant, O Lord that our souls may hunger and thirst for righteousness, and to know that righteousness exalts a Nation, but sin is a reproach to any people. Help these Legislators to be ever mindful of the welfare of their constituents. Help them to be guided by motives of unselfishness and directed to the common good. Lead us to prove our gratefulness for our State of Wisconsin in devotion for the welfare of our state, by the voting privilege we enjoy, in improvement of our communities, and our Nation as a whole.

These blessings and petitions we ask in the Name of our Lord. Amen."

REMARKS BY THE SPEAKER

"Thank you. It is a privilege for me to assume the post of Speaker today.

I thank you for your confidence and pledge to serve you and the people of Wisconsin to the best of my ability.

In electing a Speaker, the House bestows on one of its members great power over them, and it has been such since our legislative system first started its evolution in England.

But the power is restrained. As elsewhere in our enlightened system, it is power checked.

Above all else, it is a position and person that must live by the rules.

Assembly Rule 3 (k) captures the position well when it states that the Speaker shall "In general, represent and stand for the Assembly, declaring its will and obeying its commands ..."

I look forward to obeying your commands. The lessons I have learned from two friends -- Norman Anderson and Ed Jackamonis -- will help us all.

Those of you who were just sworn in are here today because democracy works. You are here to make democracy continue to work.

You have won an election. Like the recipient of the Chinese curse, you have realized your desire.

This chamber is the arena in which you will now fight for the people of Wisconsin.

Robert La Follette said "...democracy is a life; and involves continual struggle. It is only as those of every generation who love democracy resist with all their might the encroachments of its enemies that the ideals of representative government can even be nearly approximated."

And when La Follette described his democracy, he also was talking about economic democracy.

People are without jobs in Wisconsin today. Some people are hungry. Some people are homeless. Children need security.

The awesome thing about this job we are fortunate to hold is that we have the power to provide jobs, to provide help, to provide hope.

We only fail, I believe, when we decide not to use the power the people have given us. I plan to use that power.

It may be that government that governs least governs best, but we in Wisconsin are going to have all the government that is necessary to do the job.

The people already know that those with jobs will have to help those without jobs. That those with profits will have to help those without profits.

The people already know our citizen government cannot work without an educated citizenry. Commerce cannot be facilitated nor can farmers move their goods without an adequate transportation system. Our commitment to the elderly and helpless must be maintained in bad times as well as good.

The Governor of New York in his inaugural address said, "A society as blessed as ours should be able to find room at the table for the hungry, shelter for the homeless, work for the idle, care for the elderly and infirmed and hope for the destitute."

Wisconsin is part of a great nation. We cannot expect to be an island of prosperity and enlightenment. Other states are not our enemies. We must seek common goals with our neighbors and not pursue policies that steal their jobs.

Slicing the economic pie in a different manner does not make the pie grow larger.

We must pursue the national idea. And we can make this nation stronger by disagreeing vigorously with national policies that we feel may hurt us.

Be proud Wisconsin led the way with the nuclear freeze referenda passed by this House. And we will send a message of equality to the women of this nation when we adopt an equal rights amendment to our state constitution.

So let us begin our journey. And remember, the goal is not to soar with eagles, but to help others to the heights -- and then go back for another load.

Thank you."

State of Wisconsin
Office of the Secretary of State
Madison

I, Douglas La Follete, Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby certify that the following proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin have been approved by the Regular Session of the Legislature of 1981, and duly published, as required by Section 1, Article XII of the Constitution, and are hereby referred for further approval to the Legislature of 1983.

Enrolled Joint Resolution 30 (Senate Joint Resolution 51)

Enrolled Joint Resolution 43 (April 1982 Special Session AJR 1)

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal, in the City of Madison, this 3rd day of January, 1983.

DOUGLAS La FOLLETTE
Secretary of State

1981 Senate Joint Resolution 51

Enrolled No. 30

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION

To create section 25 of article I of the constitution, relating to prohibiting denial of equal rights on the basis of sex (first consideration).

Whereas, equality of legal rights, regardless of sex, is necessary to achieving the ideal of equal justice under law; and

Whereas, the adoption of an equal rights amendment is in the judgment of the legislature and the people of the state of Wisconsin a necessary and proper means of assuring such equality; and

Whereas, it is the intent of the legislature to ensure that benefits and protections provided to persons of one sex are extended to all persons, and it is further the intent of the legislature that this principle of extension of benefits shall apply to any protection or benefit provided by law unless such law is specifically repealed by the legislature; and

Whereas, the legislature here acknowledges that such an amendment shall have no effect on the ability of congress to conscript persons for military service of any kind; and

Whereas, it is the intent of the legislature that the right of privacy guaranteed in the federal constitution permits sex-segregated sanitary facilities; and

Whereas, the legislature intends this amendment to apply to discrimination based on sex and not discrimination based on sexual orientation; and

Whereas, the legislature has determined, understands and intends that such an amendment shall not limit in any way the legislature's power to enact legislation prohibiting, regulating or allowing abortion; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That:

SECTION 1. Section 25 of article I of the constitution is created to read:

[Article I] Section 25. Equality of rights or equal protection under the law may not be denied on the basis of sex.

Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for 3 months previous to the time of holding such election.

April 1982 Special Session
Assembly Joint Resolution 1

Enrolled No. 43

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION

To amend section 1 of article VIII of the constitution, relating to earmarking not less than 40% of any state sales or use taxes for education property tax relief (first consideration).

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of article VIII of the constitution is amended to read:

[Article VIII] Section 1. The Except as further provided in this section, the rule of taxation shall be uniform but the,

(1) The legislature may empower by law authorize cities, villages or towns to collect and return taxes on real estate located therein by optional methods.

(2) Taxes shall be levied upon such property with such classifications as to forests and minerals including or separate or severed from the land, as the legislature ~~shall prescribe~~ prescribes by law. Taxation of agricultural land and undeveloped land, both as defined by law, need not be uniform with the taxation of each other nor with the taxation of other real property.

(3) Taxation of merchants' stock-in-trade, manufacturers' materials and finished products, and livestock need not be uniform with the taxation of real property and other personal property, but the taxation of all such merchants' stock-in-trade, manufacturers' materials and finished products and livestock shall be uniform, except that the legislature may provide by law that the value thereof shall be determined on an average basis. ~~Taxes may also be imposed~~

(4) The legislature may by law impose taxes on incomes, privileges and occupations, which taxes may be graduated and progressive, and reasonable exemptions may be provided.

(5) The legislature may by law impose excise, sales and use taxes. Of any tax imposed on sales or use, the legislature shall by law set aside an amount equal to 40% of the proceeds for a school property tax credit. Fifty percent of the amount shall be made available to the towns, villages and cities in proportion to their share of the total property tax levied for education purposes and 50% of the amount shall be made available to the towns, villages and cities on the basis of a general equalization school aid formula, as set by law. Such towns, villages and cities shall allocate the entire amount of such moneys to property owners in proportion to their share of total assessed valuation in the taxing jurisdiction. The resultant amounts shall be shown separately on property tax bills as a credit against all property taxes due.

Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for 3 months previous to the time of holding such election.
