February 9, 1983

Honorable Thomas Loftus
211 West, Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin

Today I am appointing a special subcommittee of the Assembly Committee on Elections to draft proposals and conduct hearings on the problem faced by the Democratic Party in Wisconsin with regards to the open presidential primary. As you know, the result of a decision by the United States Supreme Court in the case of The Democratic Party of the United States of America v. Wisconsin ex rel. LaFollette, 450 U.S. 107 (1981), and the failure of the Democratic leaders in the state of Wisconsin in their recent appeal to the National Democratic Committee for an exemption from the mandates of a closed primary, means that it is necessary for the Legislature to develop alternatives that respond to these recent developments.

I am appointing Representative Jeff Neubauer as the chair of the subcommittee. He will be primarily responsible for dealing with the various interested parties in the development of legislative proposals.

I am also appointing to the subcommittee Representative Marcia Cogg, Representative Barbara Ulichny and Representative Randall Radtke.
