resigning my seat as State Representative from the 45th Assembly District, together with all statutory and standing committee assignments which I have held.

As the Assembly Majority Leader during this session, I have enjoyed the personal friendship and excellent working relationship we have had with one another and other members of the Legislature.

I have been deeply appreciative of the honor and privilege to represent Beloit area residents and the State of Wisconsin in the Legislature for the past thirteen and two-thirds years. It has been a responsibility which I have greatly enjoyed, and I will cherish the memories always.

With kind regards,
GARY K. JOHNSON
Assembly Majority Leader
