PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

State of Wisconsin
State Senate

September 29, 1987

To the Honorable, the Senate:

As you well know, the Legislature will convene in an extraordinary session on September 29, 1987, to consider whether to override a number of the Governor's vetoes of the budget bill. Because a petition challenging the constitutional validity of some of those vetoes is before the Supreme Court, it is important that the intent of the Legislature be stated on the record. As Senate Majority Leader, I wish to make it clear that the Legislature, by its action on certain vetoes, does not intend to acknowledge the constitutional validity of those vetoes and does not waive its right to challenge in court the validity of any veto.

I ask that when the Legislature convenes on September 29, 1987, that this statement be received by the Senate and spread upon the Senate Journal.

Sincerely,
JOE STROHL
State Senator

CALENDAR OF SEPTEMBER 29, 1987

Senate Bill 100
