1989 WISCONSIN ACT 133

AN ACT to amend 343.23 (2) of the statutes, relating to: the information contained in the department of transportation's records on licensees.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 343.23 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

343.23 (2) The department shall maintain a file for each licensee containing the application for license, a record of reports or abstract of convictions, and a record of any reportable accident in which the licensee has been involved, including specification of the type of license issued under this chapter under which the licensee was operating at the time of the accident and an indication whether or not the accident occurred in the course of the licensee's employment as a law enforcement officer, fire fighter or emergency medical technician — advanced (paramedic). This information must be filed by the department so that the complete operator's record is available for the use of the secretary in determining whether operating privileges of such person shall be suspended, revoked, canceled or withheld in the interest of public safety. Such reports and records may be cumulative beyond the period for which a license is granted, but the secretary, in exercising the power of revocation granted under s. 343.32 (2) may consider only those reports and records entered during the 4-year period immediately preceding the exercise of such power of revocation.

SECTION 2. Initial applicability. This act first applies to records of reportable accidents occurring on the effective date of this SECTION.

SECTION 3. Effective date. This act takes effect on the first day of the 6th month beginning after publication.
